

Katherine Williams

August 1, 2007

Katherine Marshall Williams, born Nov. 29, 1917, received the grace of our Lord and Savior and passed into eternal peace the evening of Aug. 1, 2007. She lived most of her life in Wise, Va. Following the death of her husband, Ray W. Williams, she lived with her daughter, Barbara W. George in Cumberland, Va. The last three years of her life were shared with her daughter, Carolyn W. Kaufman in Portsmouth. Her years were spent as a homemaker and a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She was Baptist by faith. Surviving Katherine are a daughter, Carolyn W. Kaufman and her husband Tom of Portsmouth; daughter, Barbara W. George and her husband Stewart of Cumberland, Va.; son, Gary Williams and wife Gail of Norton, Va., and James A. Williams and wife Glenda of Midlothian, Va. Katherine had 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. Also surviving is her brother, Virgil Marshall. Funeral arrangements are being coordinated between Loving Funeral Home in Portsmouth and Sturgill Funeral Home in Wise, Va. There will be a graveside service in Powell Valley Memorial Park in Big Stone Gap, Va. Family and friends will gather at the residence of Gary Williams, 649 Park Ave., Norton, Va. No formal visitation or viewing is being planned. Memorial contributions may be sent to the charity of one's choice.