“ It is with great sadness that I just found out about Booboo's passing. I've called a couple times with no answer, and I thought about visiting him on Maywood, but never got around to it. I worked with Booboo for a many years at NNSY. He was a pleasure to work with and he was always willing to help you. Booboo may be gone, but he will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, my friend 🤍

“Godspeed Ken (Boo Boo) Barbee. You told many stories over the years. Were and still are the topic of many conversations here at Norfolk Naval Ship Yard. He was an early riser who came to work every day with an awesome breakfast freshly whipped up that morning. He was the go to guy for us younger folks here in WPC at NOB's Whisky 130, Off Yard Carriers. "Hey Boo Boo" hope to see you on the other side so we can pick up where we left off. Farewell ole friend.

“I knew boo-boo for years and worked with him at the NNSY navy base detachment. All of us really liked working with him. He always had something to say and it kept the office stress level low. I remember getting banned from riding with him to get scratch tickets at the gas station during lunch after I won a couple times in a row and he didn't. He said I was creating bad luck for him. He was funny. Rest In Peace
