“ Kevin was my Mentor, my Friend and a Brother. While serving with him on the Albany, I discovered that he was a Chief masquerading in a First Class Uniform. Not only did I get the honor having him sign my Charge Book in '08; he completely blew my mind when he showed up for our Retirement Ceremony in '16. Our prayers and love go out to the Family, during this time of Mourning. My Brother-in-Law, Sean Gawne-Mark, also served with us on the 753. He asked that I send his Condolences to the Family, as well. God Bless.

“ I met Kevin when he reported to the MSP. I found out quickly that behind his quiet exterior there was a vast wealth of submarine knowledge. He was willing to share his views and opinions, always respectful. I had the pleasure of working with Kevin when he transitioned from active duty to a contractor with ZAI and then again when he became a government employee at SOS. I enjoyed his stories about shooting and competition. Easy man to like. Kevin, you were a great shipmate, brother, and friend. You will be missed. Rest your oars brother.

“ I met Kevin when I worked at SUBLANT. We talked about camping and guns a lot. He convinced me to get a Ram Pickup to tow my trailer. I harped on him to become a civilian federal employee and was happy to see that he took that advice. I will miss Kevin and the talks. So very sorry for your loss of not only a husband, dad but a great friend.

“ Kevin and I go way back to my first submarine, USS Sea Devil, SSN 664 in the 1980's. I have great memories of those, arduous, but rewarding days. Kevin was a big part of that experience. I look here at the posted photos of Kevin with his family, as well as, the kind words written and it only confirms what I already knew... that I'd made a good choice in calling my shipmate, Kevin, my friend.

My deepest condolences in this time of sadness.

“ I always liked Kevin. We had some serious talks and butted heads once or twice, but he could always be counted on for honest answers. Then we could share a laugh when what seemed stressful was resolved. A man, shipmate, brother, and friend I could count on, we all could count on. Rest your oars brother.

“ Kevin was a great friend, colleague and mentor. He was always quick to come to aid, show support, and when appropriate, provide forceful backup. He was one of a few brothers on MSP that I could consistently turn to during my CPO initiation. He had an infectious way with other people that just made you want to be around him. I would describe him as a man to model oneself by. This world is a lesser place without him, he will be truly missed.

My most sincere condolences.

Rest your oars Shipmate, we have the watch. Fair winds and seas abeam.
