“ Don,
Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this difficult time. I am sorry that I never had the opportunity to meet your wife but I know what a wonderful husband you have been through the talks that we have had. Please know that I am here if you need anything and am blessed to have such a wonderful friend as you. Hang in there my friend.##imported-begin##BOB ROSS##imported-end##

“ Kim's passing is of great loss to us all. Our deepest condolences to Kim's family and friends.

I met Kim while working at NEXCOM. We had a great time at work and outside of work. We baked cookies, sang and laughed until we cried.

Kim was always cheerful regardless of the situation. I am grateful that I was able to know Kim and have fond memories of her. She is an inspiration!

“ Don and Zack, Words cannot express the sorrow I feel for you, your family and friends. Kim was truly a beautiful person. Her warmth, intelligence and caring showed in everything she did and everyone she touched.

Joy does not describe fully the happiness I feel that she is no longer suffering. However, my world will be a little less bright without her in it.

My husband Bill and I truly express our sincerest condolences.

“ I have many fond memories of Kim. Her smiling face, her good nature, her kind words. I can still hear her voice saying "Hey you", whenever I think of her. Kim started me eating sushi. Those were some wonderful lunches. Working with Kim was always a treat and I have truly missed her. My deepest sympathies are with you all.##imported-begin##Marty Martinez##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear of Kim's passing. We went to Western Branch together and were good friends in school. She always had such a bright smile and was always happy. My fondest memory is we went to the movies and saw Saturday Night Fever, we were not old enough to get in, the smile on her face when they sold us the tickets, was brighter than the sun. I think of that moment everytime I hear a disco song. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Nancy Newsome Wilkinson##imported-end##

“ To a most beloved "Jeannie" . . . named Kim

*Kim, fresh as a daisy
Did things that just amazed me.*

*She smiled, Presto the rain goes
She blinked, up came the rainbows,
Cars stop, even the train slows.*

*When she goes by, she paints sunshine on every rafter,
Sprinkled the air with her beautiful laughter.*

There's no one like . . . Kim.##imported-begin##Gil G.##imported-end##

“ I want to send my condolences to the family of Kim Oliver. I did not know Kim personally but I've heard many many good things about her. We are a customer of Don's and whenever he spoke of his wife his face lit up. I am very sad for the family and friends. May you have the strength and the courage to get thru this tough time in your lives. “ My fondest memories with Kim were us laughing so hard we would both be crying. Everyone around us thought we were nuts. Kim, I love you for your kind and loving heart, your laughter and your constant encouragement. Don, you are a wonderful husband to Kim, your strength and devotion to her shows what a wonderful man you truly are. Zach, always remember that your mom is forever in you. She loves you unlike any other....ALWAYS. Anne, God bless you for being such a blessing to your son and his family.##imported-begin##Chris Eaker##imported-end##

“ Don,

My heart breaks thinking about Kim & your loss. I will always remember hanging out with her at ODU's Web Center between classes & her telling me about the wonderful guy she met & how happy she was. Then to my surprise - finding out it was you - one of our old high school buddies!

Kim was always so upbeat & kind & I thought the world of her! You and Zachary are in our thoughts and prayers!

“ Don, Zach, Bob, Anne and Gene,
Kim is the nicest person that I ever knew. She always had something nice to say about everyone. She made me feel great even when she was not feeling so good. We had many happy times, but the best times were at the moives..
So I will see you there one day my courageous friend.##imported-begin##Jennifer Bugg##imported-end##

“ Don, Zach, Bobby,
I am still in shock over losing Kim.
She fought so hard to live another day, regardless of the pain she went through. She was the sister I never had, and the friend I will always love. I have been so blessed to have had such a special person in my life. I can't put into words how much I loved her. Kim will forever be an inspiration to me. Please know that I will always be here for you if you need anything. All my love.##imported-begin##Lisa Porter Whitley##imported-end##
