Michael your dad was such a great man. Always positive and of course humorous. He was a beacon of hope for all that new him. He showed that all things are possible, and never stopped working one day at a time. He loved his friends and family with all his heart. What a humble man. Mary Kook

Mr Ruffing was such a staunch supporter of veterans, especially those of the Korean War Era. He had such vase knowledge and compassion and made an indelible impression on all he encountered. DAV Chapter 22 in Portsmouth was greatly influenced by Mr Ruffing, and he will be missed! We collectively extend condolences to the family.

Leo was so very generous in sharing his experience with others. He was a shining light for all who knew him. When faced with a dilemma, I often wonder, "What would Leo say?" God Bless Leo Ruffing.
