

LeRoy Craig

July 15, 2008

LeRoy Craig, born in Belvidere, N.J., Feb. 4, 1916, passed away in Portsmouth July 15, 2008. He was formerly of Clarks Summit, Pa. Le Roy is survived by his wife of 67 years, Evelyn Gibson Craig; sons, Gary L. Craig and wife Lydia E. Zayas and Robert W. Craig; seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. He was a World War II flight instructor, detailed engineer on B29 for Boeing Aircraft Co., former sales manager and assistant to the president of United Gilsonite Co., and president and general manager of Scranton Corrugated Box Co. owned by Chesapeake Corp. Le Roy and Evelyn owned and ran The Village Green Shop in Clarks Summit until their move to Portsmouth in 2005 to be with family. Le Roy was a member of Rotary and the Masons. He was a great husband and father who never failed to help anyone he knew and loved. A graveside service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday in Olive Branch Cemetery. The family will receive friends at Loving Funeral Home Churchland Chapel from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Friday.

Tribute Wall

“ Grandpa, I miss you so much already. I am greatful that we were able to spend some time together recently. I know that you are at peace and please know that you are loved.##imported-begin##Gary Craig, Jr##imported-end##

July 17, 2008 at 12:00 AM