“ Mrs. Kidd and Family,

Wanted you to know how much we enjoyed Lewis. When he worked with PQDRs, he used to stop here at NAVICP Mechanicsburg for a "customer service" visit, when he came to PA to go to the Hershey Auto show. When he no longer worked with our office, he routinely called to check on everyone and "tried" to pull some type of trick on me! Sometimes he "had me going"! But, he always made me smile and laugh, no matter how horrible my day was. He always told me PA women were TOO honest, because I always told him how it was! He was always bragging about what a good wife he had and how you took special care of him! I told him he was lucky, but you must be nuts! I'm sorry to say, I did not know Lewis was ill, but had wondered why he hadn't called lately. He will be greatly missed. He was the king of story telling! My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Rhonda L. Seigle##imported-end##

“ We loved Lewis more than words can describe. We miss him so much already. We are so glad to have so many wonderful memories of Lewis: ski trips, the trip to Disney, going to church, the Marlin Club, Sunday night marshmallow roasts and many, many nights out to eat. We knew if Lewis was involved it would be FUN! He made such an impact on our lives and the lives of our children. There will never be anyone else like him. I worked with Lewis for many years at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard and shared many stories about our children's baseball games. Lewis always knew how to make people smile and laugh. Lew was one of a kind. He was a big man, but his personality and spirit were much bigger than his physical body. When he came into a room you could feel his smile. One of the nicest people I have met. He will be missed and remembered.

“ I went to High school with Dawn. We were in the same homeroom & I consider her my friend. I last saw her at our 20th high school reunion. Even though I did not know Lewis I can tell by these 121 entries that he was liked by many & will be sorely missed. But I can also tell that he was a man of God & he is rejoicing with our lord & savior now. I just lost my brother last week so know a bit of the sorrow you are feeling right now. My sympathy goes out to you Dawn & to your children. I know your in- laws through Dr. Ishoms office where I work. They are wonderful people & will continue to be a source of strength for you. “ Dawn, Jordan, Allyson, Mr. and Mrs. Kidd, Leigh Anne, Lori and Family, I am sorry to hear of your loss. I haven't seen "Little Lewis" in many years since I have lived in PA for 15 years but after reading all of the lovely letters to you I realize he was very much loved and respected. Of course, when I think of him the names Pic Juicy Lucy, OBI Old Bones Incorporated, Hot Dog, Chucky and my name, Dino come to mind. As a child I did not really appreciate this. Ha!

It seems like yesterday that we were at Loving Funeral Home for my Mam Maw's viewing. A few hours before she passed my son Garrett who is autistic wanted to lay with her. He is very much into music and I asked him to sing a song to Mam Maw. To my surprise he proceeded to sing "Only the Good Die Young" by Billy Joel! I have no idea why he chose that song but it was very appropriate. And it seems so in this case.

My heart goes out to you.

With Love,

“ What can we say that hasn't been said? There isn't really anything that anyone who knew Lewis and your family doesn't already know. If you knew Lewis, you loved him. We did. When we moved back to VA and joined Believers we soon found Lewis to be a strong backbone of that church. One that fought for the church and his church family. He was ever true and present to the church, his family and his friends - a true Christian who didn't need to talk the talk because he walked the walk. So many times we have put our faith in men and so many times have we been failed. It was our fault alone to have looked around instead of up. But Lewis never let us down. The only thing that felt like home after the hurt was the Kidd-Tarr Family. We look to them for guidance and see they are all leaders. They are a pillar of kindness, strength, love and an awesome outstretching of Christ's Body. Thank you for all of you. You are very kind friends that I consider family. We will all miss Lewis. Especially those that never knew him, what a true blessing they have missed out on. It was an honor to have him as a friend. We will miss his prank calls, his "Indian" talk, his laugh, his smile...him. I know the moment he left this earth and saw His face he heard, "Well done thy good and faithful servant." For the Family, may the Lord hold you tightly in his everlasting, comforting arms and may you seek shelter from the storms of sadness in Him and your unbelievably vast amounts of friends who love you dearly.##imported-begin##Curtis and Cindee Hawkins##imported-end##

“ To the Kidd Family, our hearts are saddened at the passing of a former co-worker, friend and fellow brother in Christ. Yet, our hearts are gladden in the homegoing of a courageous saint of God! The Word of God declares, "Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints" Psa.116:15. Jesus said, "...I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper..." Heb.13:5,6 May the grace of God and his tender mercies go with your family as you face life without the presence of your treasured love one! “ What can you say about a guy who made everyone else around him better, happier, important and more complete when you were in his presence? Lewis had that Special way of making you feel like you were the most important person in his life at that very moment! As a young 7th grade boy growing up at Faith Christian I can truly say he had a lasting impact on my life. You can't know Lewis and not be a better person for being blessed while in his presence. I remember thinking, "This guy is Awesome!" He made me feel like I was one of the "older" guys and he always looked out for me! Some of you remember that baseball team with Coach Wayne Smith and me as the Manager. I value that time as seeing a leader in Lewis that would follow him the rest of his life! Even through the years when I didn't get a chance to see him often, when I did, It was like old times! I can still hear him laugh and I know he is more happier than ever right now at the right hand of God the Father! His character and godly legacy will live long in all of us who knew him. : I can truly say it hurt to hear that Lewis passed on, but I know the Lord called him Home at his appointed Homecoming! "Honey, have I ever been here before?" Lewis will be greatly missed, but we know that someday we will be together again.

“ A little girl had been shopping with her Mom in Wal-Mart. She must have been 6 years old, this beautiful image of innocence. It was pouring outside. The kind of rain that gushes over the top of rain gutters, so much in a hurry to hit the earth it has no time to flow down the spout. We all stood there under the awning and just inside the door of the Wal-Mart.

We waited, some patiently, others irritated because nature messed up their hurried day. I am always mesmerized by rainfall. I got lost in the sound and sight of the heavens washing away the dirt and dust of the world. Memories of running, splashing so carefree as a child came pouring in as a welcome reprieve from the worries of my day.

The little voice was so sweet as it broke the hypnotic trance we were all caught in "Mom, let's run through the rain," she said.

"What?" Mom asked.

"Let 's run through the rain!" She repeated.

"No, honey. We'll wait until it slows down a bit," Mom replied.

This young child waited about another minute and repeated: "Mom, let's run through the rain,"

"We'll get soaked if we do," Mom said.

"No, we won't, Mom. That's not what you said this morning," the *young girl said

as she tugged at her Mom's arm.*

This morning? When did I say we could run through the rain and not get wet?

*"Don't you remember? When you were talking to Daddy about his cancer, you said,
'If God can get us through this,
he can get us through anything!"*

The entire crowd stopped dead silent. I swear you couldn't hear anything but the rain. We all stood silently. No one came or left in the next few minutes.

*Mom paused and thought for a moment about what she would say.
Now some would laugh it off and scold her for being silly. Some might even ignore what was said. But this was a moment of affirmation in a young child's life. A time when innocent trust can be nurtured so that it will bloom into faith.*

*"Honey, you are absolutely right. Let's run through the rain. If GOD
let's us
get wet, well maybe we just needed washing," Mom said.*

Then off they ran. We all stood watching, smiling and laughing as they darted past the cars and yes, through the puddles. They held their shopping bags over their heads just in case. They got soaked. But they were followed by a few who screamed and laughed like children all the way to their cars.

And yes, I did. I ran. I got wet. I needed washing.

Circumstances or people can take away your material possessions, they can take away your money, and they can take away your health. But no one can ever take away your precious memories... So, don't forget to make time and take the opportunities to make memories everyday. To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven.

I HOPE YOU STILL TAKE THE TIME TO RUN THRO UGH THE RAIN.

They say it takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, a day to love them, but then an entire life to forget them.

God makes everything but unbreakable hearts!##imported-begin##Karen & Hill Cooper##imported-end##

“ The Penny

You always hear the usual stories of pennies on the sidewalk being good luck, gifts from angels, etc. This is the first time I've ever heard this twist on the story. Gives you something to think about...

Several years ago, a friend of mine and her husband were invited to spend the weekend at the husband's employer's home. My friend, Arlene, was nervous about the weekend. The boss was very wealthy, with a fine home on the waterway, and cars costing more than her house.

The first day and evening went well, and Arlene was delighted to have this rare glimpse into how the very wealthy live. The husband's employer was quite generous as a host, and took them to the finest restaurants. Arlene knew she would never have the opportunity to indulge in this kind of extravagance again, so was enjoying herself immensely.

As the three of them were about to enter an exclusive restaurant that evening, the boss was walking slightly ahead of Arlene and her husband. He stopped suddenly, looking down on the pavement for a long, silent moment.

Arlene wondered if she was supposed to pass him. There was nothing on the ground except a single darkened penny that someone had dropped, and a few cigarette butts. Still silent, the man reached down and picked up the penny.

He held it up and smiled, then put it in his pocket as if he had found a great treasure. How absurd! What need did this man have for a single penny? Why would he even take the time to stop and pick it up?

Throughout dinner, the entire scene nagged at her. Finally, she could stand it no longer. She casually mentioned that her daughter once had a coin collection, and asked if the penny he had found had been of some value.

A smile crept across the man's face as he reached into his pocket for the penny and held it out for her to see. She had seen many pennies before! What was the point of this?

"Look at it." He said. "Read what it says." She read the words "United States of America."

"No, not that; read further."

"One cent?" "No, keep reading."

"In God we Trust?" "Yes!" "And?"

"And if I trust in God, the name of God is holy, even on a coin. Whenever I find a coin I see that inscription. It is written on every single United States coin, but we never seem to notice it! God drops a message right in front of me telling me to trust Him? Who am I to pass it by? When I see a coin, I pray, I stop to see if my trust IS in God at that moment. I pick the coin up as a response to God; that I do trust in Him. For a short time, at least, I cherish it as if it were gold. I think it is God's way of starting a conversation with me. Lucky for me, God is patient and pennies are plentiful!

When I was out shopping today, I found a penny on the sidewalk. I stopped and picked it up, and realized that I had been worrying and fretting in my mind about things I cannot change. I read the words, "In God We Trust," and had to laugh. Yes, God, I get the message.

It seems that I have been finding an inordinate number of pennies in the last few months, but then, pennies are plentiful!

And, God is patient...

Have a blessed day!!!imported-begin##Jake Everette##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,

There is a loss on this earth with the passing of Lewis. I first met Lew back in 6th grade at Faith Christian. We were in school together for 3 years, until I moved on to a different school. But even after moving on, I was able to keep in touch with him. He was definately our class clown. I share stories to this day with my own kids of the laughter that Lewis brought to his friends.

While there may be a loss on this earth, there is a big place he can now bring that same laughter to those that have passed before and will meet him later. Let's just hope they have a good since of humor when he "squirts them".

To Dawn, Jordan, Allison, Mr. & Mrs. Kidd, Lori and Leigh Anne, and the rest of the family, I share in your loss but thank God I was able to know Lewis.

May God Bless,

“ Our Faith family has experienced several losses. When cancer took Mark Kramm in Feb of 96 his wife sent this out in a letter.

"I am stnding upon the seashore, a ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come down to mingle with each other. And someone at my side says, "There, she's gone."

Gone where? Gone from my sight, that is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her; and just at the moment when someone at my side says, "There, she's gone, there are other eyes watching her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "There she comes!"

...and that is dying for those who trust in Jesus Christ's work on the cross for their salvation.##imported-begin##Lynn Richards##imported-end##

“ Lewis had a special gift of laughter that was contagiously spread wherever his presence. Regardless of the mood you were in previously, one was guaranteed to be in a better one after spending just a few moments with Lewis. As a child, I often heard that the noise from a thunderstorm was caused by the sport of bowling taking place in heaven. With Lewis' departure from this world, now when a thunderstorm comes along, I will most likely wonder if the noise is caused not by heavenly bowling but rather as a result of Lewis having God and His angels rolling on the floor with laughter. In our 20+ years of friendship, where we experienced the joys as well as the pains of life, it is with great fondness that our family reflects on the times we shared. Those times were always filled with laughter, whatever the reason we gathered, and we will always cherish them. Until we see you again, rest peacefully my friend.##imported-begin##Danny & Chrystal Phelps and Family##imported-end##

“ It has been my privilege to know Lewis for the past 20 years. Not only were we co-workers, we were close friends. "Big Lew" could brighten the moment no matter where you were or what you were doing. We quickly discovered we had similar interest; from baseball to collecting "stuff". One of the most enjoyable trips I have ever taken was with he and his dad to Hershey PA to the annual car show. I think I laughed continuous for 4 days! Dawn, Jordon, and Allison, he was totally devoted to you. Whenever we talked, it didn't take long for the conversation to turn to family and how proud he was of you. There was a reason "Big Lew " was so big, God just couldn't cover up a heart that big with a little body! John 14-2 reads "In my Father's house are many mansions;.. and I go to prepare a place for you." I look forward to the next time I see Lew in his Heavenly Mansion. “ For the family and friends of Lewis I am deeply sorry for your loss of a wonderful husband, father, son, brother, and Christian man who loved his God, family, and neighbors doing all he could when ever needed. Lewis lived his life w/love of God, which gave him the peace and joy to enjoy all of life. When w/children he could be child like when he needed to be a mentor he did so w/success. When w/adults he encourage humor and when needed provided responsibility to balance the atmosphere of the moment. Lewis lived a life here on earth that exemplifies the Grace received from God as a Christian. His life may have been short here on earth but what I know is it will live on and from Heaven Lewis will still be our Angel. What Lewis gave to each who knew him we will use in our everyday walk just as we did when he was walking beside us in the physical step. “ Where are the words to express the deep visceral pain that follows the loss of a beloved son? There are none. And what happens to all the moments of tenderness shared from his first precious breath to his last uttered words? They will dwell in your heart and memory until your last drawn breath and you will remain forever bonded by a love too powerful to see, to powerful to hear, and to powerful to express. “ To the Kidd family,

Just wanted to express my deepest sympathy to you on the death of Little Lew. I just want to say that Lewis and your whole family have meant so much to me since I met you all about 20 years ago. There is not a nicer family that I know of. Lewis touched my heart in such a wonderful way; through all of his jokes, emails and phone calls and the on-going joke of marrying me one day!!!! Lewis was surely "one of a kind" and I am so glad to have had him a part of my life in knowing him. He had such a love of life in all that he did and was a wonderful Christian man that shined through him. I know that Lewis is in heaven and we all will see him again one day.

I will continue to keep you all in my thoughts and prayers in the coming days ahead and just keep your faith and trust in the Lord Jesus Christ that He will guide you through this time and that you will be at peace.

I love you all and if there is anything I can do for any of you, please don't hesitate to ask.

Love you all,

“ I have known Lewis for many years and consider him a dear friend. I worked with Lewis at Norfolk Naval Shipyard for many years. In the pipe department and various projects, he was a just man. He was such a nice person and will be truly missed. My children met him and always spoke kindly of him. I talked to him Thursday. He was soft spoken and tired. He was a Christian and I was glad to know that. May the good Lord give you comfort in these trying times. I'll be praying for you Dawn, your children, and family. Revelation 21:4 "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away."###imported-begin###Jimmy Heath###imported-end##

“ I had the great pleasure of knowing Lewis as a coworker at Norfolk Naval Shipyard. I first met him just after he arrived in the shipyard and our friendship was immediate. Lewis and I worked side by side for 3 of the last 6 years. Those 3 years were; without doubt, the most interesting of the 30+ years that I have spent at NNSY. I will never forget Lewis, and I doubt that I will ever have the privilege of knowing another man that could bring such joy to the surroundings.... Everyone he met loved Lewis and now our Lord and the Heavenly Saints can know and share the wonderful spirit that touched our lives. My prayer is that the grace of God will comfort Dawn, Jordan, Allison and Lewis' extended family.##imported-begin##Gary Cline##imported-end##

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to Lewis' family. I knew him to be a hard working shipyard employee. His personality made it hard not to like him and it was obvious that he was a gentleman and caring parent. I was honored to have been able to know him.###imported-begin##Eugene Daniels###imported-end##

“ Lewis and I have known each other since the early 70's. We worked together and joked on each other every since. Lewis and I joked about who had the biggest head? Lewis always told a story about the time he tore my underware down inside a reactor compartment when i had bent over to inspect his work. At that time he was working for me. He even told that story at my retirement party last year. Lewis was a "TRUE FRIEND" and I will miss him##imported-begin##Raymond Collins##imported-end##

“ While I only met Lewis about three years ago, I felt like I had known him all my life. As a notorious jokester, Lewis always knew how to get others to laugh, even at themselves. He was also a very compassionate man who was always willing to help anyone in need.

In three short years, there have been many fond memories. From his wheeling and dealing to get us the best hotel rates on our baseball trip to New York to teaching my 3 year old how to say "Git 'er done", Lewis will always possess a special place in our hearts.

While I could write a book about my memories of Lewis, I'll sum it up by saying we will miss you greatly Lewis! There will never be another like you.##imported-begin##Mark Marchetti & Family##imported-end##

“ If I could say one more thing to Lew it would be, "For all you did to make so many others happy, thank you! For all the jokes and practical jokes that kept us laughing at life and ourselves, thank you! For your friendship to Roy and I, thank you! For your years of dedication to Anna, Lee and Jill whether at church or the ballfield, thank you! For giving of yourself to the Lord, thank you! We are all so glad you gave!"

Watching so many flood to Lewis' house on Monday, I couldn't help but think of the "Thank You" song and how many lives Lewis touched for the Lord.

Dawn, Jordan & Allison, Mr. & Mrs. Kidd, Lori & Leigh Anne: Thanks so much for sharing your husband, daddy, son, & brother with all of us. Your faith is such a testimony. We will miss him too! May you find strength in the Lord. We love you all!##imported-begin##Lynn Richards##imported-end##

“ Dawn, Jordan, Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Kidd and all extended family and friends,
We were enriched to know Lewis through the Marlin Club, but our connections go back to my Portsmouth roots and my father Coleman Morgan. Lewis had a way of making us all feel welcome as if you had been friends forever. He lit up faces no matter where he was and left you laughing. As you go through these difficult days, may the ever present smile and laughter of Lewis fill you heart and ease the pain. Our thoughts and prayers are with you now and in the future.

Love,

“ "Come To Me"

*God saw you were getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So, He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the BEST!*

Lewis, you were really were the BEST!. We will miss you dearly.

*All our love, Dawn, Jordon, Allison, Mr. & Mrs. Kidd, Lori, Aner, A.J.,

“ To the family and loved ones of Lewis, May God comfort and strengthen you during this difficult time, and may you smile and know that he is in the presence of our Lord, only now with a perfectly healthy body. I am a nursing supervisor at the hospital where he has been a patient lately. At the request of Lewis' friends, the Marchetti's, I would check on him. I became very fond of Lewis in a very short time. I even had the priviledge of praying with him and we shared our faith in God with one another. In our very short friendship, it was apparent that he loved the Lord, adored his family, and loved people in general. A light on earth went out on February 7th, but Heaven became a little bit brighter. God bless.##imported-begin##Shannon Lavender##imported-end##
