

Linda G. Brueggeman

May 21, 2021

A beautiful soul has left us. Linda G. Brueggeman, 73, passed away in a hospital in Hempstead, Nassau County, New York on May 21, 2021. She was a native of Middlesboro, KY, and was the daughter of the late Joseph Pass and Wilma Idol Dunn. She was also predeceased by her son, Scott Brueggeman.

She is survived by her husband, Walter “Bud” Brueggeman, two daughters, Pamela Brueggeman Adams, and Shannon Cahoon Foster, and one son, Bryan David Brueggeman. Additionally, she is survived by two sisters, Loriann Dunn Ripley, and Susan Leigh Salas, and two brothers, James Michael Dunn, and John David Dunn. Additionally, she is survived by seven grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

She retired as corporate treasurer and office manager from Seaport Plywood, Inc. in 1996. Known for her beautiful smile, gentle soul, and love for others, her beauty could light up a room. However, her inner beauty and encouraging words were far more attractive to all.

A memorial service will be held at 6:00 P.M., Saturday, July 24, 2021, at Loving Funeral Home, 3225 Academy Ave., Portsmouth, VA 23703. Officiating, Pastor Louis Ray Hollowell. Visitation with the family will follow the service.

“ My friend who always had a smile on her face no matter what she was going through. We have been friends since we were teenagers and we would cut music up as long as it would go and dance and sing to the top of our voices. She was definitely a beautiful soul and I loved her dearly.
