“ Linda and I went together in high school at Cradock High for 5 years. She was the love of my life through out high school. She broke my heart when she broke up with me in 1968. I gave her a hope chest for Christmas and made her very happy. Im so sorry to hears so late about her passing
Billy Watson told me just today. My heart is broken 😞 I loved her so much!!!

“ Linda was such a uplifting person every time I was around her. She was working at Hair By George when I met her. She was a close friend of my brother, Phillip Cornwell. The time I had spent with her was so memorable because of her everlasting personality. She was such a caring person. I know her family will miss her dearly. Heaven has another Angel.
