“ *I am very glad to have known Mr. Walker. He was a wonderful man and great story teller. I will always remember him coming to our office with a huge smile and bags of tomatoes and figs from his garden. He was very proud of them! He was like everyones grandfather. I will miss him very much. Love to Helen and Annie !

“ *Helen
Walter and I are so sorry to hear of Lloyd's passing. Our hearts break as we know yours does too. We don't understand these things but we know God is God and His power, love and mercy sustains us. He will comfort you when you need comforting and He will carry you when you need carrying in the days ahead. Our love, thoughts and prayers go out to you and Annie. God bless you.

“ I would know nothing of Tokyo turnips were it not for Mr. Walker, and I know they will never taste quite the same as they did fresh from his garden -- if I can even find another source for them. Over the years I have enjoyed his subtle humor, thoughtful recollections, fondness for history, and love for his animal companions first Nissan and then Susan. While we will all will miss him, as St. John Chrysostom noted,

"Those whom we love and lose are no longer where they were before; they are now wherever we are."

His soul not only soars beyond us now, but also surrounds us. God? s many blessings on him, and on Helen to whom I send my love, his devoted wife.##imported-begin##Heather Hollowell##imported-end##
