

Louis W. Turnage

January 8, 2024

Louis W. Turnage, 79, passed away peacefully on Monday, January 8, 2024. He was a native of Bath, North Carolina, a Christian and a member of Living Waters Christian Fellowship. He retired as a planner and estimator for Norfolk Naval Shipyard and went on to become a realtor after retirement.

All services will be private.

Tribute Wall

JY

“ Would see him at church/ always enjoyed talking with him / will miss him

Jim young - February 07, 2024 at 04:54 PM

LO

“ I always enjoyed working and talking to my Carolina buddy at SUSPHIP. My prayers go out for the family.

Leonard Overman - January 12, 2024 at 08:46 PM

LJ

“ Louis was a very fine man, and we will always remember him as being always kind and thoughtful. We have been going to church with Louis for a long time and we have watched as he went through a very troubling times. First, losing his first wife, and then in recent years battling cancer. My heart goes out to the family. He will be greatly missed at Living Waters Christian Fellowship.

Larry and Cathy Jessee - January 12, 2024 at 08:08 PM

MC

“ Had the privilege of working with Louis, nice gentleman.

Michael Chappell - January 12, 2024 at 09:43 AM

CB

“ Sorry to hear about Louis's passing he was a very nice man was well liked through the community sorry to hear that you will not be having a public funeral

Christine Belcher - January 09, 2024 at 10:12 PM

JO

*So sorry to hear about Louis.
We played a lot of golf over the years. Prays for the family & friends.*

Johnny Owens - January 10, 2024 at 04:17 PM

MH

We could not have had a better back yard neighbors than Louis and his family for the past forty years. We have been amazed at his strength during his health challenges in recent years - one tough guy. Our sincerest condolences to Elaine, Louis, Wayne and all family members. Rest well my friend, see you on the other side.

Mark and June Hecker - January 10, 2024 at 09:23 PM