“ Hi folks! I just wanted to send you a quick note to draw your atttenion to your itunes feed. It doesn't seem to be publishing your recent episodes. The last one appears to be 11/27. You might want to take a look at that. When I search for your podcast in the itunes store, the episodes show up, but not when I subscribe or try to download. Best of luck, and glad to see you haven't closed up shop!###imported-begin##Takahiro##imported-end##
