

Malery "Mo" Minton Sr.

February 22, 2021

Malery O. "Mo" Minton, Sr., 82, went to be with the Lord peacefully on Monday, February 22, 2021. He was predeceased by his loving wife of 58 years, Emily Ward Minton. He is survived by his children: Jennie Minton Blowe, Alene Minton Wilmoth, and Malery "Owen" Minton, Jr.; and five grandchildren: Joshua Rategan, Emily Blowe Lednik (Max), Ryan Minton (Kayla), Carrie Blowe Brown (Nicholas), and Shealeigh Minton.

He was born in North Carolina and was the son of Earleen Simons Minton and Lloyd Wingate Minton, Sr.

Mo and Emily lived many happy years in Chesapeake, Virginia. He retired from the Norfolk Naval Shipyard with 38 years of service and was a long time member of Alexander Baptist Church, serving the Lord in many ways over the years, including as a deacon, teacher, and sound technician. He was loved by many as a fellow church member, coworker, and friend, but his most esteemed position was "Grand-Pop".

With abundance of caution during the pandemic, the family will have a private service, and burial will follow at Meadowbrook Memorial Gardens in Suffolk, Virginia.

“ The Lord gifted Moe with the gift of kindness and hospitality. I will never forget while serving as pastor at the old Alexander church building, that most Sunday mornings Mo would have his 7-Eleven coffee in hand, and meet and greet people in that main foyer from the parking lot. If I ever wanted to be encouraged, if I ever wanted to be made to smile, I could always go to Mo on Sunday mornings before Sunday school and church and have a joyful conversation. I have never forgotten his kindness and his gentle way of talking with people. What a blessing he has been in my life and he has encouraged me so much in my life journey of following Jesus. Praying for his family and friends today, Chip Corbin
