“ To the family of Mrs Euglow, Thanks for sharing your mother at the nursing home. She was a pleasure. Such a kind and warm hearted person in so many ways. Just thought she was special in the giving of her time for the church music she gave to help others enjoy the church services at the chapel. She always tried to help with the resident council meetings to ensure others needs were met through her thoughts. She was honest and so deserving of the comments I bring forth to the family. I worked at the home for almost 17 years and Miss Margaret was a Lady in every sense of the word. So neat and cared about how she looked. Now she is resting and in the hands of Jesus. Take comfort and know she loved her Lord. Her Bible was her guide and this made her the Lady she was. God bless and take care. She is sick no more. Thanks for allowing us to do our part. “ My memories of Mrs. Euglow are very precious to me. For many years at 6:30 on Wednesday evening, I was in her home for my piano lessons. Music has been a major part of my life because of her very capable and patient teaching. I have been a public school music teacher for twenty-five years, and I have taught private piano lessons as well as directed children's and adult choirs at my church. She made me a musician, and I will forever be grateful to her for that, but she taught me so much more than just the music. We always chatted about life in general, particularly about Judy, Kenny and Happy. She brought the reality of the Vietnam War home to me when I was a teenager because I saw it from her viewpoint as she missed Kenny so much. She was a model of a wonderful mother, wife, teacher and musician to me, and I will miss her. I'm proud to be able to say that she was my teacher. Her influence in my life led me down the paths that I have chosen, and I am so grateful to her.##imported-begin##Becky McKee Wilhite##imported-end##
