“ I just learned that Aunt Margie had passed away over a year ago. I am so sorry. She was always so loving to us, calling us, writing letters, and asking for pictures. We loved her and had tried to find out about her, having very little information to work with. We even went to her house in Portsmouth, and it appeared that no one lived there. I I wrote a letter which was not returned, but I had no response. I have been out of touch with you and would love to hear from any of her family and will continue my efforts to contact you.
