“ My sympathies to one of the sweetest people I have ever known and her family. Many years ago Marie babysat for my two older children for several years. As any mother, I was concerned about going back to work and was worried about how my children would react. Once Marie opened the door with her smile and warmth, I knew they would be just fine. Besides being a wonderful babysitter, I enjoyed time spent with Marie when I would pick them up. It was a bright spot to my day. ❤️

I will never forget those beautiful times we spent just talking about what was going on with her children and of course sewing. Such a warm, kind and loving person that will always be remembered.

My thoughts and prayers go out to the family and it was a blessing to know you all. May God be with you now and forever. 🙏

*Love,
