“ An Angel has gone to be with her maker. She was the sweetest lady I knew. Always a cheerful hello and hug. She is surely going to be missed. Sorry I won't be there.##imported-begin##Bob Hollister##imported-end##

“ Marie became a friend in the fall of 1976 when I was in graduate school at ODU and decided to sing in Centenary's Sanctuary Choir. Dick Dill, the director, had me sit next to Marie. Since then we have shared so many things at Centenary-working together when she was always the interim administrative assistant-trying to convert her proficiency in Word Perfect to Word. Agonizing over the membership rolls and leadership; and singing in the Choir-always on pitch & in rhythm. When I left Centenary to pastor in 1990 and again 2009 I missed Marie's pragmatism, her laugh & dry wit and her welcoming spirit. Loved giving her & receiving her hugs at Wed. church dinners when I went. Well done, good & faithful servant!##imported-begin##Ellen Comstock##imported-end##

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a dear and wonderful person. She was a great friend to my mother, Elaine Nuckols, and to our entire family for many years. All of you are in our hearts and in our prayers.##imported-begin##Jim & Melody McKinley##imported-end##

“ A bonafide member of America's Greatest Generation, Marie was a devoted military wife and mother, raising four very wonderful & successful children. She was a very sweet, intelligent, sophisticated, religious, classy and compassionate woman.

I only met her a few times, but on each occasion I was very impressed.

The loving matriarch of the Kendrick family has joined her soul mate. Wish I could have known her longer than I did.##imported-begin##Benjamin L. Nadola##imported-end##
