“ One year ago today I lost my mom. But truthfully, I didn't really lose her, I know exactly where she is today; she has a new body, healed of all earthly ills and frailties. She was my hero and my friend; I have a hole in my heart that will never mend. But you are home now Mom! I know I will see you again one day; in the meantime, I think of you every day and miss being able to call you and tell you I love you!

“ Mom - you are so missed and loved by many. It was just 4 weeks ago today that you left us, but just physically, you are still here in our hearts and always will be.

This is part of the bulletin that we had at your Celebration of Life luncheon on March 31, 2016. You would have thoroughly enjoyed this time that we had in your honor! The facebook messages that we have all received are beyond numerous! It's so heartwarming to see the many lives that you touched!

Marion G. Petroccia, 89, of Huntington Sta. NY., (recently having resided in Portsmouth, VA) passed peacefully to be with her Lord and Savior on March 23, 2016. She was born in Worcester, MA in 1927. Before becoming ill, Mom attended the Bethel Baptist Church in Hampton, VA.

Mom is survived by her children Charles Hallgren (Susan deceased) of E. Fallsfield, PA; Donald Hallgren (Brenda) of Ocala, FL; Valerie Hallgren-Ivahnenko (Alex) of Winter Garden, FL; Martin Hallgren (Deborah) of Lynchburg, VA; Steven Hallgren of Winter Garden, FL; Janice Rheel (Vincent) of Mercerville, NJ; Tom Petroccia (Edie) of Portsmouth, VA. AND - Mom has 13 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Mom has a brother Herbert and a sister Phyllis who is deceased. Mom is predeceased by her husband William T. Petroccia (2009) and her beloved son, Kenneth (1980). Mom will be buried along side them both.

Mom loved all kinds of animals and rescued many, even before “rescue” was in vogue! So with that in mind the family would like to suggest in lieu of flowers, donations be made to your local animal shelter or to a local hospice agency.

The family would like to express their thanks to the dedicated staff at Intrepid Hospice.

The Hallgren and Petroccia Family wish to extend their deepest heartfelt gratitude to you sharing this time with us.

And lest we forget, Mom you would always say, "I did it my way!"

“ I will truly miss Marion. It was a honor to help her through this last phase of her life. She always kept me on my toes and I never knew what was going to come out of her mouth next. I loved her sense of humor. Keeping all of the Petroccia family in my thoughts and prayers.
