

Marjorie Jenkins Shaw

December 8, 1920 - December 17, 2010

Marjorie Jenkins Shaw, age 90, native of Gideon, Missouri passed away on December 17, 2010. Born December 8, 1920 she was a graduate of the nursing program at St. Louis City Hospital, Missouri.

She worked in various nursing fields including private duty, emergency room, directing emergency rooms, supervision, nursing education and in-service administration. She retired from Norfolk General Hospital as director of staff development on December 31, 1984.

Marjorie is survived by her husband of 63 years, Harry R. Shaw; her son, Roland R. Shaw and his wife, Janet Spivey Shaw of Wilson, NC; grandson, Bryan Rawls Shaw also of Wilson, NC. She also has surviving sisters, Beulah McNulty of St. Louis, Missouri and June Kaylor of Goldsboro, NC.

She is very grateful for the help of her niece, Phyllis J. Parron, her husband, Richard Parron and their sons, David and Richie. She would have been unable to live independantly without their help.

Marjorie was a member of St. Andrews United Methodist Church and she would like memorial donations made to the Shawn Bloodworth Scholarship Fund at St. Andrews United Methodist Church 5615 Portsmouth Blvd. Ports. VA 23701. A memorial service will be held at St. Andrews United Methodist Church at 2:00 p.m. Monday by Rev. Michael B. Reaves, Rev. Harry B. Spear, III and Rev. Robert E. Friend, Jr.

Tribute Wall

“ Margie will be missed by so many, she touched the lives of a lot of people. What a true and beautiful lady##imported-begin##Katherine Harrison##imported-end##

December 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM