

Marshall Glenn Corbett

July 16, 2007

Marshall Glenn Corbett, 62, ended his battle with cancer and went home to be with the Lord on July 16, 2007, while at home surrounded by family. Marshall was the son of the late Robert & Ruby Evans; adopted son of Luther & Ovada Corbett. He was formerly employed by Deep Creek Baptist Church, Churchland Baptist Church and he retired from Calvary Baptist Church.

Marshall is survived by his childhood sweetheart of 43 years, his wife, Barbara Sue Corbett; 2 daughters, Barbara Michelle Lewis & husband, Doug, Victoria Corbett Casteen & husband, Sam all of Chesapeake; 4 grandchildren, Jason Alan Lewis & wife Jaala Ruth, Laura Elizabeth Lewis, Robert Carlton Casteen III and Corbett Christian Casteen all of Chesapeake; a brother, Gattis Evans of Portsmouth; 5 sisters, Joyce Higgins and Edna Evans both of Anger, NC, Faye Prince & husband, Ottis of Willow Springs, NC, Ann Kirker & husband, Jerry of Florida and Lois Corbett Connole of Chesapeake; numerous nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by a brother, Robert Lee Evans Jr. & wife, Elizabeth, a sister, Frances Fish & husband Melvin, brother-in-law, George Higgins and sister-in-law, Martha Van Noy Evans.

The family would like to express their special thanks to Pastor Philip Parker of Calvary Baptist Church, and the church family for their continued support long after his retirement; thank you just isn't enough. We would also like to thank our very special friends Dave & Susanne Johnson and Jerry & Joy Greco for their love, support and encouragement throughout Marshall's illness.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday in Loving Funeral Home by Jason Alan Lewis and Pastor, Jerry Greco, with burial in Churchland Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends in the funeral home Wednesday from 6-7 p.m.

“ Dearest Barbara, Michelle, Vickie & family,

Our love & prayers have been with you through Marshall's illness and now that he is in glory we will continue to pray for you as you grieve your loss.

We received this little poem when we lost Jerry's Dad and we felt that you might find comfort in it as well.

When God slops down with His hand, the one we love so dearly, it's hard to understand. But with faith's eye, look upward, just beyond the gloom, and see your previous loved one in Heaven brighter room. So lay aside your grieving, and look to God above, He'll steal away your sadness, and fill your heart with love. Nells Walters

*We love you all and look forward to seeing Marshall in heaven!
With love, Your brother & sister in Christ.##imported-begin##Amber & Jerry Ogert##imported-end##*

“ Dear Barbara, Michele, and Vicki,
Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers...you are special people and I have fond memories of living next door to you all. I still tell the stories of scaring Marshall...of course I don't tell about how he scared me!! What a fun and loving man. May the God of all comfort be you hope and stay.

“ Barbara,
Please know that you and the girls and their families are in our prayers. We were saddened to hear of Marshall's death, but as our minister is always telling us, he didn't die, he just moved to heaven. May God grant you peace in your time of grief.##imported-begin##Ernie & Jenny Johnson##imported-end##

“ To Barbara and family,

When I first met Marshall, we were teenagers, I remember how much he loved the Lord and how much he loved Barbara. He never changed. When he went to heaven, we all knew how much he loved and trusted the Lord, he was still in love with Barbara. and he loved and was so proud of his daughters, son-in-laws, grandchildren and unborn great grandchild. Through his suffering, the Lord continued to use him and he lifted all of us who were in contact with him. He is at peace. God bless all of you.

“ To Barbara, Michelle, & Vicky:

I was saddened to learn of Marshall's passing. While we have the blessed hope of being re-united with our loved ones one day, we still grieve. I pray that the Lord comfort you during this time of loss and that He will bring into remembrance manifold memories that you can treasure forever. May the peace that passes all understanding be upon you,

“ To: Vicky, Mrs. Corbett, Sam, Corbett and Robbie:
I was so sorry to hear of Mr. Corbett's passing. Although I didn't know him well, I will always remember him as a kind, gentle man with such a warm smile. I use to enjoy talking to him at the baseball games he was always so nice. I pray that your family gets through this sad time of breavement,I am confident your faith in GOD will carry you through. Mr. Corbett is in heaven with the LORD free of pain and worry. I know you miss him, my heart goes out to you. Again, my thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family.

Sincerely,

“ What a tremendous loss of life for all who were blessed enough to have known Marshall! He was such a fine example of christian faith and strength. I am so happy for him that his suffering is over and he is now restored and with Christ. May this same Christ comfort the rest of you as you journey on until you are all reunitd again in Heaven. God Bless!##imported-begin##Taraleigh Casteen##imported-end##
