“ Ericaand family, I am truly sorry for your loss! I pray you and your family will be able to find some peace in the fact that she is no longer suffering! May God's love and grace bring you peace in this time of mourning! I will be praying for you! Isaiah 40:31 But they that hope in the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall take wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.##imported-begin##Kammy Oneail##imported-end##

“ Dear Billy, Linda & family,

This can be an overwhelming time for you, causing it to be hard to express the words you need to hear. I hope you feel the love that pours out from those who care. May you be blessed with peace that you provided care for Grandma while she was here and that she is no longer suffering. Have comfort that God feels your pain and will strengthen you during this time. Have faith that your life "together" will go on and may your reflection be on only the good memories in the days to come! Continue to be good to each other! You remain in our thoughts and prayers!

“ Mom, Billy and Erica - I am so sorry that I can not be with you now but know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time. Know that Grandma is at peace now, no longer hurting and she is back in the loving arms of her husband and God our Father. I know I am miles away but please let me know if there is anything I can do for you. I LOVE YOU ALL VERY MUCH!

*Love,
Shannon, Jason, Coleman, Cayden and Kale###imported-begin##Shannon Gonzales###imported-end##*
