

MeCe Cary Black

October 28, 2018

MeCe Cary Black passed away on October 28, 2018 in Portsmouth, Virginia, after a brief illness. She was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina and raised in Columbia, South Carolina. She attended public school in Columbia, graduated from Dreher High School and attended Columbia College. She was a member of Washington Street Methodist Church in Columbia, South Carolina and was employed by Crossmark Retail Services.

She is survived by her husband Sam Black; sons Michael and Nicholas Brown; sisters Miriam L. Cary Cobb and Margie Cary Hetrick; nieces Leah Cobb, Lori Lundsford and Kena Downey; nephews Cary Bass and William Bass.

MeCe was predeceased by her parents Helen and Woodrow Cary; sister Margaret Cary Bass; niece Kimberly Miterko; nephews Chuck Meeks and Clint Cobb.

MeCe played the piano and had a love of music. She enjoyed creating beautiful things with her hands and cooking. She was a very majestic person. We all were in awe of her. She was proper, aloof and so smart. At the same time, she was delicate and fragile. A true contradiction.

She was a fierce protector of her children and family. She found the strength to be her own person and followed her heart. We admired her strength and will, which was an example to everyone.

Her name was MeCe and we believe it was her way to say See Me. Well MeCe we have always seen you. We will continue to see you with our hearts. We know you will continue to see over us from heaven until we meet again.

A memorial service will be held at a later date in Columbia, South Carolina.

Memorial contributions may be made to Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters 601 Children's Lane, Norfolk, VA 23507 or to Cancer Research.
