

Melba A. Stallings

February 7, 2016

Melba Stallings, 89, passed away on Sunday, February 7, 2016. She was a long-time member of Churchland Baptist Church & worked many years in the library & history room. Melba was an active member of the Ester-Rachel Sunday School Class & served as needed in other area of the church. She loved all of her deacons at church. She was an avid reader and enjoyed playing bridge with old friends.

Melba is survived by her husband of 69 years, Vernon Stallings; sons, Michael and his wife, Cheryl, Richard and his wife, Jane; grandchildren, David Stallings and wife, Nicole, Anne O'Keefe and husband, John Michael; and five great-grandchildren. Melba was predeceased by her son, David Gray Stallings and the family will always be appreciative of the care given to David by the Virginia Home in Richmond.

A funeral will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. Friday at Churchland Baptist Church. Burial will be private at the church cemetery. The family will receive friends in Loving Funeral Home Thursday from 7-8 p.m.

The family suggests memorial contributions to the building fund of Churchland Baptist Church or the charity of your choice.

“ Much love and sympathy to the family. Especially Mike and Cheryl, whom we support in prayer. What a wonderful family Mrs Stallings had! I am sure that her most proud life accomplishment was the loving and beautiful children and grandchildren that will carry on her legacy of Christian service and faith.
