“ I remember you when you were a rugrat running around in diapers and drooling with no teeth. I remember your young years of riding bikes and being a sweet kid. You became a man and had your own ways. Still didnt stop you from spending times at Bush GARDENS WITH Adam and I. You were good to my kids and they love you for it. I will miss your smile. The one where I sat in amazement about what was he gonna get into next with his mischievious grin. He was my first born nephew and is my first to leave this world. My heart is full of what could I have said or done, by we all know that time is no more. Be in peace. Love you always Rana Leigh
