

Milagros Gilmore

April 4, 2025

Milagros Gilmore, aged 79, was a proud native of Luquillo, Puerto Rico. As an adult, she moved to Fajardo, Puerto Rico, where she devoted her life to raising her children, Raquel and David. In 1967, she married the love of her life, Edwin Ramon Gilmore, at the Conquistador Hotel in Puerto Rico. Sadly, Edwin passed away in 1989.

In later years, Raquel and her youngest son, Christopher, returned home to live with Milagros, and together they nurtured Christopher until he graduated and moved to Virginia to pursue his nursing career. As Milagros's health began to decline, she and Raquel relocated to San Juan, Puerto Rico, to be closer to her medical team. They lived there until June 2024 when they moved to Virginia to be near Christopher and his family as her health rapidly worsened.

Milagros experienced great happiness upon relocating to Virginia, where she could be near her grandson Christopher and his family. This move allowed her the cherished opportunity to witness the growth of her great-grandson, Colton.

She is survived by her son and daughter, David Gilmore and Raquel Gilmore. She has four grandchildren: Jose Lopez and his wife Heidy, Alitssa Lopez-Gilmore, Christopher and his husband Layne Hancock, and Josue Gilmore. She also has five great-grandchildren: Julisa Roney, Bryan Roney Jr., Clara

Maria Lopez, Ricardo Amir Lopez, and Colton Hancock, along with a host of loving family members and dear friends.

Milagros departed this life on the morning of April 4th. She was a treasured mother, grandmother, and friend, renowned for her kindness, wisdom, and unwavering love.
