

Mildred Jenkins James

September 18, 2007

Chesapeake ? Mildred Jenkins James, 93, passed away on Tuesday September 18, 2007. She was a native of DeWitt Co, IL and a member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church. She was a Retired Portsmouth Public School Teacher.

Mildred was predeceased by her husband, Ray Thomas James. She is survived by her 2 daughters, Marjorie Engleman and her husband, Bill of Cape Girardeau, MO, Phyllis Parron and her husband, Richard of Chesapeake, VA; 5 grandchildren. Pam and James Roche, Natalie and David Mansell, Melinda and Carl Black, David and Adele Parron and Richard Parron, Jr.; 8 great-grandchildren; 3 sisters, Beulah McNulty, Marjorie Shaw and June Kaylor.

A graveside service will be held at 2:00 p.m. Thursday in Meadowbrook Memorial Gardens by Rev. Joseph Winfree and Rev. Larry Adams. The family will receive friends in Loving Funeral Home, Portsmouth, VA from 6-7:30p.m. Wednesday. She suggested memorial contributions to Aldersgate united Methodist Church or to EDMARK Hospice for Children 516 London Street Portsmouth, VA 23704.

Tribute Wall

“ I will miss your presence at our Holiday Festivals, your mouth-watering bakery but most of all will miss you as part of our life. Rest Mom, Love Mary##imported-begin##Mary Brinker##imported-end##

---

September 20, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Mrs. Mildred was a very special person in many people's lives. She was especially sweet to my four year old daughter, Lucy, and she will be missed very much. Mildred never missed an opportunity to spoil her or send her a card. I know she is an angel now who will look after many young children. We were lucky to have her for as long as we did!##imported-begin##Lisa Duke##imported-end##

---

September 19, 2007 at 12:00 AM