“ Neil and I first met in the Woodrow Wilson High School band. He took me to my first prom. Even though I haven't seen him in many years, I continued to enjoy his posts on Facebook. This kind and gentle man will always be remembered. My condolences and prayers to his beautiful family who are hurting now.

“ Lived across the street during our young a formative years, baseball in the street, football behind the houses, lots of toy soldiers with Billy and Everett. RIP old friend.

“ Neil was one of first people that I worked with at NNSY. He was always exchanging stories about our experience in Vietnam. Then about what we were doing at work. He remained my friend even after we both had retired. Would see him at ODU basketball games. He will be missed by all his friends and Co workers in Shop 71.

“ Neil was a very special man, a gentle giant of a man that loved life, the redskins, friends and family. He supported his kids, and many others, in their school functions, sports, anything that was important to the child, was important to him. He never met a stranger, everyone was welcomed in his life, and greeted not by hello or hi, but "greetings ". He was and still is loved by many, and will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. Love you Neil J. Goldfarb- always and forever.

“ Neil was our best friend and such a wonderful person who enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. He would drop everything in a minute if we needed him and rush right to our side. We spent many hours either watching the Washington Redskins (Commanders) together or talking about the games. We took trips together and raised our children together. He is a friend that is dearly missed. Our love and best wishes go out to his wife, Ann and his children Meg and Mark and family.
