“ Grandma, I miss you so much...I am so sorry that I cannot be there to say goodbye to you today. Being your FIRST grandchild gives me the honor of having you for my Grandma the longest. I remember how you took care of my sons, Jason and Brandon your first grandchildren when their Father passed away from Lung Cancer in 1987. You will LIVE through all of us FOREVER. “ We will always remember Aunt Nezzie. She was such a lady. She always greeted us with a kind word from her heart and a smile on her face. Jack's mother enjoyed her visits with Aunt Nezzie. Now they can have them again.###imported-begin##Jack & Linda Graves###imported-end##

“ Dear Chris,
I have so many sweet memories of your mother and you bringing her to the beauty salon. Always a smile on her pretty face. You You always had a smile too.
It did not go unnoticed how kind you were to your mother.
My heart is with you and family

“ Mama,

We are really going to miss you and even though I didn't get to tell you goodbye I know we'll be together again when the Good Lord calls me home. There are so many memories to sustain me until that time. You got to live a very long life--it's hard to believe you reached 101 and during that time you got to enjoy Daddy, your grandchildren, great-grandchildren and, of course, Christine and me.

Until we meet again.

Your loving daughter, Ernestine###imported-begin##Ernestine Dail

“ I shared this thought with my friends on Facebook and thought I would share it here as well: "I know she is stoked extremely happy to be where she is. I saw her two days ago, and even though she couldn't speak, she was looking at me, and I could tell she wanted to talk to me...probably to tell me goodbye, and to tell the girls the same. She was a very faithful and caring person. She always thought highly of me, loved her Great Grandchildren...and let me know it regularly. She was a special person to me. I will miss her and our laughs together, but I am not sorry, because I know she is where she wants to be. She has wanted to "go home" for years! I will miss her for now, but I'll hold the memories until she and I laugh together again!##imported-begin##Darryl Inscoe##imported-end##

“ What a special lady! Darryl and Karen took me by to meet her this month along with my granddaughter Megan. She was so sweet and I enjoyed watching her with her Great grandchildren. You could tell she loved them so much. My granddaughter thought she was so special..she took right to her right away. I know she is happy smiling down on those she loves.##imported-begin##Susan Park##imported-end##

“ Chris and family, What a beautiful lady! I treasure all the memories of coming out of Church on Sunday to get a hug and a little kiss from Miss Nezzie. I never once heard her complain or say anything that was not positive. We all should learn that lesson from having been associated with her. I know your hearts are broken but you know that Miss Nezzie is really happy to be home with Jesus now. I pray that God will pour out comfort and peace for all of you at this difficult time. Love to you all.##imported-begin##Evelyn Baker##imported-end##
