“ Lyle, we are so sorry to hear about Patty. Joan called and informed us of your loss.
When I think of her I always see the picture of her in my mind of her feeding the deer on Mt. Rainier when you had her fly out there. Been a looong time ago. I always enjoyed the conversations with Patty when I called. She was a beautiful and generous person and you were very fortunate to have had her for 60 years. Again, our condolences go out to you and your family.
Have been trying to reach you by phone, but don't get an answer. Please call when you can.##imported-begin##Elvin & Dolores Smith##imported-end##
