“ Sadly, as his granddaughter, I only have a handful of memories to share. It probably comes as a surprise to most that I even exist. Same goes for my brother, his grandson. Granddaddy tried. I'll continue to keep my few memories to myself. Please make wise decisions when you choose to make children. Trust me, it will save them years of hurt, rejection & exclusion from your family when you make selfish decisions to move on with new spouses & make new children to replace the old!

“ I didn't know Mr. Flattum passed away. Just wanted to say he was such a kind man. I worked at Virginia Audiology. We talked a lot about his life and how much he missed his wife and now they are together again. My condolences to your family.

“ Mr. Paul went to Chile on the mission trip with me and my alter ego Sparkles. It was a wonderful trip and the children loved him so. He would come into the fellowship hall each Sunday morning when we attended Nansemond as we ministered to the children in Wee Worship and give me a big hug. He was loved by all. Will keep the family in our prayers. Mike and Nina Britt
