“ I WOULD LIKE TO SEND MY CONDOLENCES TO YOUR FAMILY. LOSING A LOVED ONE CAN BE DISTRESSING. THEREFORE IT IS IMPORTANT TO DRAW CLOSE TO GOD IN PRAYER, FOR THE BIBLE PROMISES THAT "HE HIMSELF WILL SUSTAIN YOU."-PSALM 55:22.

WE ALSO NEED TO DRAW CLOSE TO FAMILY AND FRIENDS, BECAUSE THEY WILL ALWAYS BE THERE TO SUPPORT US IN EVERY WAY.

WE CAN BE ENCOURAGED BY REFLECTING ON GOD'S PROMISE CONCERNING THE HOPE OF SEEING OUR LOVED ONES AGAIN. I HOPE YOU FIND COMFORT IN READING THESE SCRIPTURES.

JOHN 5:28,29, JOHN 11:11-44, AND REVELATION 21:3,4.

“ My deep condolences for your loss. I always considered Paul a great guy and one of the few coworkers I would spend my off time with. I had the pleasure of working with Paul for all the time he worked here. He lightened the spirits of many of us in the time we spent with him. I hope the pain of his loss will ease over time and you'll remember nothing but the good times and the way he brought everyone up.##imported-begin##Tim Gantley##imported-end##

“ Dear Stitt family...I was so sorry and saddened to learn of Paul's passing. He was my "first love" and will always be remembered with much love and fond memories. No one could ever take his place in my heart. Although we did not stay in close contact, I never have and never will forget him. I remember fondly when he and Lisa and Judy came to visit me in Hawaii. Paul and I had some time to talk for the first time in years, and he had I believe a wonderful vacation in "Paradise." My thoughts and prayers are with you all, and I'm sorry I will be out of town and unable to attend the service.

Paul was a very special person that was evident even when he was 15, and my heart aches for your loss. Love, Susan Myers Pouch##imported-begin##Suzanne Myers Pouch##imported-end##

“ Holly, Noelle, & Lynne,

Paul will always be a special part of my, as well as my children's, life. He was blessed to have you as his sisters and he expressed his love for each of you, more than you probably know, in many of our conversations. I pray that you and your families are comforted during this time of immeasurable grief.
