“ Andrea was a bright light shown on this world. By her mere presence, she radiated kindness and thoughtfulness. Then, she would proceed to demonstrate it with her words, deeds, and gift giving. Her ascent to a higher plane leaves a big empty space in the hearts, minds, and lives of people who she touched. I am one of those lives and will miss her dearly.

On every level, Andrea led a triumphant, cheerful and full life. She was a prime mover. An example for all of us to follow.

My heartfelt condolences to her family and friends.
