“ Harold and family, May God wrap His arms around you and place His hands upon you. May you find peace and comfort in knowing Petesy was very loved. I will always treasure the times she and I had together. All the hugs and kisses on the cheek, along with great support she was so willing to give. Petesy was one of my many moms at Calvary, and my heart truly hurts, but I know she is in a better place. Petesy, I will miss you my friend, I love you, R.I.P.
