Tribute Wall

“ I was blessed to have known & loved Ralph Litchfield Midgett, my former father-in-law. He WAS always there to offer support and understanding, and for that, I offer my unending thanks. My prayers are that he found peace and rest from all of the concerns of the past and that he is, at last, being hugged real tight by his Abba Father in Glory. Being away, I just discovered his passing. David, find comfort in God's presence. He is there for you. And I forgive you. I forgave you long ago. God bless.##imported-begin##LuAnn Clayton Midgett Burford##imported-end##

“ David,
Our deepest sympathy for your loss. Your daddy was a most giving and kind person...a wonderful neighbor. Our fondest memories on Lake Circle include both you and your dad. He was always there to help...had a great smile. We feel so fortunate to have known your dad.
love to all,
