“ My best memories of my granddaddy are the times spent listening to him fuss at the refs while watching the Red Skins or the Braves with my grand-mama. They would even have Red Skin napkins at the table on Thanksgiving.
It makes me smile thinking about the caring relationship that my grandparents shared. He would sit and wait for her to fix her hair so they could meet friends at McDonald's. She was as big a sports fan as he.
I know for sure that he is once again happy to be sitting and waiting while she fixes her and she is happy to be sitting with him watching the Braves play.

I love you granddaddy,
