

Raymond Lee Barton

July 7, 2007

Raymond Lee Barton, Jr., 63, devoted husband, father and grandfather went to be with the Lord on Saturday, July 7, 2007. He was an Engineering Technician with GE for 22 ½ years and currently employed at EG&G. He was a native of West Virginia and an avid supporter of the DAV.

Raymond was predeceased by his mother, Frances Barton-Cantor and his father, Raymond Lee Barton, Sr. who was killed during WWII. He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Ann B. Barton; step-father, William Canter; 4 children, Teresa Cousins, Anne Violette, Jason Barton and David Barton; 13 grandchildren, Paul Matteson, Jr., Justin Cousins, Brooke Cousins, Zach Vasquez, Leslie V. Clarke, Ashley Vasquez, Stacie Vasquez, Anthony Barton, Calli Barton, Zoe Barton, Kerri Barton, Raymond L. Barton, III, Noah Barton; sisters and brothers, Hank Cantor, Nancy Brewster, Janet Kemp, Betty Beck and his uncle, Vernon Hylton.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday in Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel by Rev. Gary Harley with burial in Mt. Zion Church Cemetery, Eclipse. The family will receive friends in the funeral home Monday from 6-7:30 p.m. and in lieu of flowers they suggest memorial contributions to the Disabled American Veterans.

“ Two Ships Midrash

Two ships were once seen near land. One of them was leaving the harbor, and the other was coming into it. Everyone was cheering the out-going ship, giving it a hearty send-off. But the incoming ship was scarcely noticed.

A wise man standing nearby explained the people's reaction. "Rejoice not, he said, "over the ship that is setting out to sea, for you know not what destiny awaits it, what storms it may encounter, what dangers lurk before it. Rejoice over the ship that has reached port safely and brought back all its passengers in peace."

It is the way of the world, that when a human being is born, all rejoice; but when he dies, all sorrow. It should be the other way around. No one can tell what troubles await the developing child on its journey through life. But when a man has lived well and dies in peace, all should rejoice, for he has completed his journey successfully and he is departing from this world with the imperishable crown of a good name.

*May you find comfort in the love of friends and family,

“ Ann, children and grandchildren,
As these words are written we want you to know this will be difficult to write because we don't want to miss anything that is important that needs to be said. It is not difficult to write about Ray himself and the impact he made on so many lives.

Ray's special qualities were given by God making him a true Hero. A true Hero does not mean famous. God has a specific purpose in mind for each believer. He uses lifes experiences, his natural talents, and his word to prepare each person for a unique position. Only God knows how the pieces fit together from the perspective of eternity to accomplish His plan. Ray let God be the Coach, he assigned Ray a position and he held on. A position of devotion and excellence. Ray was Focused and followed through. 'True heroes do their best in everything.'

Children, your father has now left this position to you and in this cruel world today the task will be hard but keep focused on God and the teachings from parents who care so much about the future.

Ann, I pray you have peace and comfort and feel blessed by the life Ray gave you. Being together all the time, except work, can be difficult but know we are just a call away.

Robin, I know I don't need to tell you your dad knew you were special. He made you His own.

Ann, I know I don't need to tell you your dad knew you were special. He made you His own.

Shawn and David, Your father loved you all. So children carry on the life your parents molded with Gods help. Take care of your Mom in the manner he would want you to do. Don't smother her, be patient and kind to her feelings the days ahead will be trials and errors. But remember this can be done gracefully.

As Bible School is at church this week the children are learning this message. Run, run, run the race! Keep, keep, keep, the pace! Run the race. Keep the pace. Keep your eyes on Jesus!

Love to the My sister, Ann and all of my neices and nephews and all of the other family.##imported-begin##William and Gale “ Death to us is usually a sad occasion but to one who knew Our Lord as Ray did, it is just a transition from this world to a much better one. Death to us seems so 'final', but to the One who is "the ressurection and the Life", death is just a passing from one place to another. I am confident that Ray is with the Lord as I write this. And I am also confident that those of us who know the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior will indeed be reunited with Ray in the not-too-distant future. I look forward to seeing Ray again soon.

“ Mrs. Barton, David, and Jason:

I have fond memories of all the times spent camped out in Mr. Barton's home office hatching plans with David and Jason how one day we'd all be rich. Every time I passed by Mr. Barton on the way in or out, he'd be sitting in his chair in the living room, the game or something would be on the TV, Mrs. Barton sitting with him, and the dogs under foot. He had this easy contentment about himself. He'd always stop what he was doing, as he always had time to chat at length. Not meaningless stuff, a real conversation. I felt welcomed and appreciated. Like I said, the brothers and I would be hatching our next get rich scheme, and in hindsight he was the wealthiest man in the house: a wife, who loved him dearly; two successful sons; all those grandchildren... I'm so sorry for your loss. Kate and I will have you all in our prayers.

“ Dear Ann and Children,
Our hearts are broken at the thought of your losing such a fine husband and father!
It was only 3 weeks ago Ray helped me carry flowers from my Mother's funeral. Mother Ruth Wallace worked at GE with Ray for those 22 1/2 years and loved him like a Son!
May God's presence carry you through this most difficult time!
We have the hope that Jesus gave, we will meet again!
