“ Poppy- "For some moments in life there are no words" -this is a quote has come to my mind many times in the past weeks. I am thankful to God everyday that I got to see you a couple of weeks ago. There are no words to express my anger for watching you suffer and knowing that while I was here living my life you were in pain. I am so glad you got to see me get my puppy recently she is the love of my life and makes me smile everyday and that you went to heaven knowing about my new job and that I am getting ready for another school year. I think about you every minute and I know you are watching me. I am so proud to tell all my friends that you bought me my first Cosmo when I turned 21. I will never forget the pool parties, going out to dinner, you beloved Dollar Store and especially the Preperation H our secret Poppy. I love you and miss you so much already. Please give Meemaw and BIG kiss for me and know that I love you both so much more than you could ever know.##imported-begin##Nikki##imported-end##

“ Terry, Bill, Nikki, & Jamie:

My deepest sympathy to all of you. I wish I could be there in person during these difficult times. Terry, I got the pleasure of meeting pops one time at your house and it was so nice watching you care for your father-it was obviously draining but so natural and effortless for you. He was lucky to have a daughter like you!

love you,
