“ Myrtle, I heard of Dick's homegoing from my sister in VA and also from Rita Adams. I was a member of Highland Baptist and remember you and Dick so well. Praying for you as you make this adjustment in your life. My own husband, Jim, went to be with the Lord in 2011. Though we know they are well and whole and rejoicing in heaven, there is still a vacant place left in our own hearts and lives. God bless and keep you in His care.##imported-begin##Jean Bragg Wallace##imported-end##

“ Myrtle,
We are so sorry to hear of Dick's homegoing. You have been such an encouragement to us in our work here in Thailand. May the God of comfort and peace surround you with His loving arms and hold you close. We rejoice in the home going of one of His own, but it is tough being the one left behind. Blessing to you as you grieve the loss of your dear loved one.##imported-begin##John & Donna Robinett##imported-end##

“ Ginny, we will miss Dick's smile, humble attitude, encouragement to follow Jesus and servant's heart. From the first day you came to Grace we were taken by you both. We are so grateful for that blessing from God. We have been better because Dick and you have been a part of Grace. It is with sorrow that we acknowledge our loss here on earth but find great consolation in knowing that Dick is with Jesus singing His praises at this very moment.
