“ It has been over 2 weeks since Rita called me with the sad news. I am still so sad and just down over your passing. I remember all the wonderful times we . had when we would come to Va. or when your folks came to Texas. Me. you. and Donnie would run the hills on out land and have so much fun. Your devil may care spirit and that boyish grin said it all. You will be greatly missed in the coming get togethers for the Scott clan but we will talk of you fondly and keep your memory alive as I do for my brother Donnie. I love you Rick and will miss you. But I know that you are free from pain and you are alright. RIP my beloved cousin I shall join you and all the Scott clan gone ahead of me.##imported-begin##BILLY SCOTT##imported-end##

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Ricky's passing. My memories of growing up on Wright Road are close to my heart. Kick-The-Can, the work on the panel truck camper, the GE bumper stickers as "upholstery" on his "spyder" bike . . . Fast forward to Deerfield, the Chevy Dealer ... Our paths crossed many times. My thoughts and prayers with an already heavy heart are with you. May God rest his soul. Peace and comfort to the Scott family.##imported-begin##C. Harrison##imported-end##

“ Ricky worked with me for a year in the eighties; I knew him well. He was charming, a friend, a fun personality; he made friends easily. I enjoyed him.

He has left us far too early, My sympathy goes to his family and loved ones. He especially loved his daughter. May he rest in peace for he has left the torment behind.##imported-begin##Bernie Kirsch##imported-end##

“ May you rest in peace cuz, until we meet again.

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the end of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things too I will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one' touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

“ My sweet family, my words are not enough to tell you the pain I have from the loss Ricky and what you all are going through! I pray that with Gods help the pain will lessen as time goes by. I wish I could have seen Ricky before he left this earth but I know someday we will meet again and have a big Scott reunion with our loved ones. Time heals and healing takes time. I love you all and am praying for you. Keep the memories close to your heart and Ricky will never be but a thought away! I will miss that awesome smile that I remember him with!!! I love you Uncle Dick and Aunt Dolly and my heart breaks for you! My love to Rita, Beth, Mary and Shannon, may you find peace in knowing Ricky is in a better place and pain free!###imported-begin##Paula Scott Wilkins###imported-end##

“ Rick was a great guy with a personality that made it a pleasure to be around him. My granddaughter is his daughter and he loved her more than anything in the world and she loved him just as much. My sincere condolences, prayers and thoughts are with his family and friends and may they be comforted in the knowledge that he is with God in his heavenly home now without any pain or suffering. May the wind always be beneath your wings Rick for now and evermore.###imported-begin##Jim Avera###imported-end##
