

Richard Williams Jr.

May 12, 2019

Richard Williams, Jr., 81, departed his friends and family on May 12, 2019. Born, raised, and a lifelong resident of Portsmouth; he was known for his many years of service to the Portsmouth Invitational Tournament, the Churchland Masonic Lodge #276, and for his sense of humor which always brought a bit of levity to any situation.

Preceded in death by his wife of 59 years, Helen; together they enjoyed life, raised two children, loved 5 grandchildren, and 3 great grandchildren. He will be greatly missed by his circle of close friends, many of which are either in the "Emerald Isle Crew," grew up with him on Scott's Creek, or just played cards with him on Thursday nights.

Richie is preceded in death by his wife Helen; his daughter Beth, and his sister Anne W. Kavanaugh. He is survived by his son Trey and his wife Debbie; his brother Donald and Lynne; his grandchildren Austin Williams and his wife Jenna, Kristin Bennett and her husband Jesse, Trey Williams, Bryce Williams, and Landon Prever and his wife Sarah and his three great grandchildren Jax and Penelope Bennett, and Reagan Williams.

A service with Masonic Rites is scheduled on Friday, May 17th at 2 pm at Loving Funeral Home in Portsmouth, Virginia; and will be presided over by Dr. Dan Koger. Family visitation will immediately follow the service. Internment will be private at Olive Branch Cemetery.

“ Donald,Lynn,Trey,
We already miss Richie & Helen. Many good memories of our teen age years together.
May they rest in peace.
May you be comforted knowing they were such good people always doing for others..
