“ The service for Uncle Bob was a beautiful tribute to him and his family. When we leave this world possessions never matter. The only thing that matters is to give love and be loved. Uncle Bob had both. We will miss him always. I am thankful for the wonderful memories our families shared. Much love, Pam Schmidtke Collins

“ I so wish I had gotten down to see your dad before he got sick. He was such a gentle, kind, grounded, hard working, and loving person. Sending prayers for peace and strength to Sharon, Diane, and Vickie. I was really hoping to be able to make it to the funeral, but I have an obligation here in Richmond and can't get out of it. Thinking of you all and sending love.

“ My uncle was a giant of a man who not only had to duck under doorways not to hit his head but had a heart of gold... When I was younger I had a bad report card and went over to his house. He gave me good advise and sent me home.... He also took a dog that I had rescued but could not keep even though dogs were not his forte....Will never forget his quiet manner and wisdom... Love you Uncle Bob.... Love Jeannie
