“ We new Ronnie and Faye as next door neighbors. You could not ask for better folks to live alongside of. We were greatly saddened by Faye's passing a few years ago. We had since retired and moved to West Virginia. On my last trip home I learned of Ronnie's passing. He was a kind man and a wonderful neighbor who was always ready to help or give advice from knowledge gained from his years of working. He is missed by all who knew him.

“ Deepest sympathies go out to Ron's family at this time of sorrow. I went through high school with Ron and graduated with him in the Class of 1953. Wonderful memories of our friendship. He always enjoyable to be around and could light up a room with his smile and warm personality.
