“ Oh Ronnie. Bob is missing your daily phone calls; I'm missing you coming through my front or back door. We'll miss your friendship & help you gave us over the years. You called me your "second mom" and I'll miss trying to keep you 'straight'.

Ronnie was a good friend & always there when you needed him. I hope that he can say the same about us.

“ Though I hadn’t seen Ronnie in many years, I know he will certainly be missed by all who knew him. Ronnie was a true southern gentleman and a get guy. I will keep in my mind and heart all the wonderful memories of hanging out in Nansemond Shores, the bluegrass festivals and the late night parties held after closing time at the Barrel, Town Point Pub and who can forget the Purple Possum. My prayers are with all of Ronnie’s family and his many, many friends.##imported-begin##Judy Waive Crist##imported-end##
