

Ronald A. Parish

September 24, 2017

Ronald A. Parish, 55, of Carrollton, passed away unexpectedly on September 24, 2017 in Bowling Green, Kentucky, where he was staying temporarily for work. Ronald, who was better known as “Ron” or “Ronnie” to his loved ones, was a stranger to no one and cherished by many. During his roughly 30 years with the IBEW, he traveled across the United States for work, making countless friends as he went. However, he was primarily stationed at Local 1340 in Newport News over the past decade. Being a wonderful father, brother, and son brought him his greatest joys in life, and he was a loyal and dependable friend. He enjoyed fishing, working in the yard, and watching his favorite team, the Pittsburgh Steelers, play.

Ron was preceded in death by his sister Lisa. He is survived by his daughter and “best buddy” Megan Parish of Evansville, Indiana; his wife, Debbie Parish of Carrollton, as well as her three children and her grandchildren; his mother Patricia Catt of Carrollton; his step-father B.J. Austin of Yorktown; and his beloved brother and sister-in-law Larry and Carol Parish, as well as their two children and their grandchildren, of South Ogden, Utah.

Ron’s funeral service will be held at Loving Funeral Home in Portsmouth, Virginia at 7 p.m. on Friday, September 29th.

“ *Megan and Pat,
I am so sorry for your loss. Ronnie was a wonderful man to have had in my life for over 27 years. A true friend to everyone he knew. He loved both of you more than life itself, so know he will always be with you watching over you. Diane Evans*
