

Rosa Bennett Redmon

July 22, 2024

Rosa Bennett Redmon of Portsmouth, Virginia, passed away on July 22, 2024, peacefully at her home, in her favorite chair. She was born in Dunn, North Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Alpha May Bennett and Herman A. Bennett. She was predeceased by her husband, William Linwood Redmon Jr., brother, Houston Wells Bennett, sister, Ernestine Wood, and daughter, Margaret “Tiny” VanRoekel.

Rosa was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and aunt. She is survived by her son, Billy Redmon, and his wife, D.J. Redmon (and two granddaughters, Brydey and Chelsea Redmon), her son, Jimmy Redmon, and his wife, Susan Redmon; her granddaughter, Kimberly Burkett, and her husband, Timothy Burkett. Rosa was also a proud great-grandmother to her only great-grandson, Zachary Burkett.

Rosa was blessed with a large and loving family. She had many nieces and family members that she loved dearly.

Rosa was known for her unwavering faith in God, and her love for her red cardinals and her Dallas Cowboys.

A visitation will be held at Loving Funeral Home on Thursday, July 25th from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm. An Eastern Star Funeral ceremony will be performed at the beginning of the visitation at 6 pm. The graveside funeral service will take place on Friday, July 26th, at 10:00 am at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests contributions to be made to the Children's Hospital of The Kings Daughters.

"Those we love will never be more than a thought away, as long as there is a memory, they will live forever in our hearts to stay."
