“ Funny thing, I got the desire to sit and read all of the posts that were written about you. Cried and laughed all at the same time. Brought back lots of good memories! You were an awesome son, brother, wife, dad, uncle, papa and friend! Not too many people can leave their earthly body with a legacy such as that! Words can't describe how much you are loved and missed. You leaving this earth has left a huge gap in our family that can never be filled, but knowing that your smiling face will be one of the first things that we see when we join you is a blessing that we all look forward to! Love you BIG brother and may you continue to rest in peace!

“ Russell,

You have been on my mind alot lately,must be that time of year, we had some snow this year.You are definitely a big loss to the whole family.We all miss you very much. Not a day goes by that your name is not mentioned. I know you are in a better place, but we still miss you. You were the best big brother a sister could ask for.You will always be in our hearts. Love and miss you dearly.

You are still my big handsome brother. Love and miss you lots.

“ Russell
Here it is again 07 January, where does time go? I cannot believe it has been two years since I saw my Big Handsome Brother. Russell you are truley missed.
Not a day goes by that you are not on my mine. I still see that sneaky smile of yours. All of the holidays are over, you missed them again.
I missed you terribly, you will always be here in my heart.

Love and miss you

“ Russell,
Here it is again. That BIG important HOLIDAY.YOUR BIRTHDAYtomorrow. You have been very much on my mind lately.
How many times do I think about calling you, when something happens.Good or bad.
You would be 55 tomorrow, and you are truly missed. I wish I could call you and sing Happy Birthday to you.
Russell you are still my big handsome brother and I love and miss you dearly. Here comes the Holidays again and you missed the Big election.
Happy Birthday

Love You and miss you.

“ Russell,
The last time I saw your Handsome Smiling Face was Christmas Day. I can still see you sitting at Joany's dining room table. I didn't know that would be the last time I would see you. I miss you more than I ever thought possible. Now it is January 7th again, you left us a year ago tonight, where did time go? You have been in my thoughts alot lately, I know you are in a better place, but that doesn't stop the pain and loss. That is what gets us all thru this. Keep looking down on all of us. We were all concerned a little about Mom, you know it was really rough on her. Just know we all love you and miss you more than you would of even thought possible. You are still my Big Handsome Brother. Sometimes I just think you are in Baltimore working, that makes it easier to deal with. Russell you will never be forgotten, you will always be in our hearts. We miss and love you dearly.

“ Russell,
*What a year! It seems like it has been a lifetime since the last time that I saw you, but just yesterday that I got that horrible phone call. I miss you more than I ever thought possible. I think about you every day. It was hard to celebrate the Christmas Holidays without you at mom's. There will always be that missing link in our family chain. May you rest in peace big brother and know that you will always be missed!

“ Russell,

*Here it is Christmas Eve, the Holidays that I so much dreaded because you are not here with us. I wasn't much into making fudge this year, until I realized you would have wanted me to. We miss you so much. It won't be the same without your smiling handsome face. I know you would want us to go on without you, so we will make the best of it. Just know you are in our thoughts. I know you and all of the rest of the family are all looking down on us all year long, but more so over the Holidays, that's what will get us all thru Christmas and the New Year. I miss my Big Handsome Brother.

“ It's hard to believe that last Christmas was the last time that I saw you. Although it is easy the celebrate the spirit of the season, it is going to be hard not to have you at mom's house on Christmas Eve. Who will guard the fudge this year? You are missed more than you know. There are times that I just sit and cry. I still can't believe that my BIG BROTHER is not here anymore. I miss you soo much!!
Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Love you very much,

“ Russell, I just wanted to wish you a Happy Birthday. Mom and myself went to see you today, we took out a few balloons, I started to sing Happy Birthday to you, like I did every year, but I was afraid that you would laugh and I would cry.
Russell I don't know where time goes, but it has been a little over ten months, since I seen your smiling handsome face. I can close my eyes and see you, but it is not the same, as seeing it for real. All of the Holidays are coming up now, and you will be missed more than ever. I wanted to do something for you, but really didn't get a chance, wanted to write something nice and put your handsome picture in the paper for your BIG 54TH Birthday. We love you and miss you very, very much. You will always be in our hearts. There is not a day goes by, that you are not missed in some kind of way. I miss my big brother.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY BROTHER

Love You,

“Dad, I had a dream about you the other day. To be perfectly honest I do not remember all the details, which took place in my dream, however, it was a dream that brought great encouragement. In the dream, I forget what was taking place I was in a room looking over some type of paperwork when you walked in. I was in shock because even in my dream I knew that you were no longer with us physically, but there you were alive. I am not sure how our conversation started once you walked in the room; what I do remember though was that you had a message for me. You had told me that you made it! You stated, "Though I am dead in this body my spirit made it to God." I could sense the silence of the moment because it was such a relief for me to hear those words. Anyhow, as the dream went along you had pointed out to me your body in the grave and told me you were so glad to get rid of that old worn out body and were glad that God gave you a new one. It was then that I woke up!

Dad, I am not sure if you believe in dreams very much, but I was taught a few years back that God speaks through dreams. Let me just say, I was glad that I had this dream because here recently I began to question whether or not you really made the decision to turn your back on the word and commit your life to Jesus. I was beginning to feel a little fearful, because what if you did not make it to where God is and you stood in His judgment? My heart could not take it; gratefully I had this dream! To be rather frank with you Dad, there were so many times when Mom, Mary, others and myself tried to show you to Christ but you rejected him. I am happy that God was patient with you and waited until you were at your weakest for you to be able to finally call out to him. I wish it did not have to be this way, yet I am grateful that it happens because I believe it saved your soul.

Last night I celebrated my 27th birthday at PF Changs, the food was fabulous! In the middle of dinner at looked at mom and made the comment, "There were three people missing from the table." You were one of them! The first time in my life I did not have my father *for my birthday. It was a somber moment. Anyhow, I love you and I miss you. I have been thinking about you immensely here lately. Life must go and I look forward to seeing you again. Love,

“ Dad,

I miss you! I do wonder what you are doing with yourself these days? Did you ever have those moments where you wanted to say something, yet you have no ideal how to articulate in such a way that your words would have the impact you had hope for? You know Dad I wonder at times what life would have been like if we would not hidden behind our fears. You might be thinking what in the world are you talking about son? Let me explain. Why was it so hard to have a relationship with you in the earlier parts of my life, yet in the end I loved you like no other!

There is this feeling inside of me that that causes my stomach to go into turmoil because there should have been so much more to life that what we experienced as father and son. I wonder what life would have been like if we would have moved to Baltimore or maybe if you would have for once in your life said no to your loyalty! Do you know what I admire about you that I wish every person in the word would actually grab with their own lives. That loyalty is what life is about!!!! Don't get me wrong love is a great thing, but to remain loyal that takes almost an act of God in most peoples lives yet you dad displayed that in your life. If there is one trait I could have that you had it would be this one. Though you were human and merely a man, your trait of loyalty is what attractted people to you. WHy? Because it is loyalty that causes us to trust, even when we do not understand!

Now let me get back to what I started with earlier in my entry. Why were we so afraid to engage each other when it could have drawn us closer to what we were called to be? There will be a day when we will stand before God together and I am going to request that you answer that! You know what my answer is? I was scarred about how you would feel about me. There you have it!!! Well dad, I must go now but I love you with all my heart!!!!

“ Dad,

Here recently I have been thinking much about you, though I can only see you in my memories. I miss you so much. I can only imagine what you are doing these days, though I know you are resting in the Lord's arms. I wanted to let you know that your grand daughters are doing great. Elise is a very good and sensible big sister at her ripe young age of 18 months to Abigail. How I wish you were able to hold Abby just one time, but the time will come when you will be able to embrace her too with your loving arms. Here recently there have been many decisions that I have needed your wisdom and direction yet I have gone without. I miss you daddy! Even now, my tears flow for my heart aches yet I know that you are in a better place. I was looking at your old medical records, go figure I still look at your records! I can see it was only a matter of time and I am thankful that you knew you were close to going home. Well, I must go now! I love you. Oh yeah, by the way, Mom...she has gone loco on working on the house you might want to give her a ring and let her know what's up!!!##imported-begin##Michael##imported-end## “ Russell, not a day goes by, that I do not think about you. It has been THREE months today. I can still see you with that sneaky smile. Sometimes it just seems like you are in Balitmore working. I have on occassion started to call you, but then reality hits. You are greatly missed. I know you are in a better place, but when we have our cookouts, who is going to bring the Hamburgers? Life is not the same, you were my Big Handsome Brother and My HERO.

I miss you terribly and I love you dearly.
You will always live in my Heart.

“ I didn't see Russell as much as I did when I was little but I still loved him dearly. It was a guarantee that I would see him on a holiday or social event. That is why our family gatherings at mama's house is so important. We need to keep our family together and our Christmas Eve's at mama's house. That is something I look forward to every Christmas! Our family is like no other, alittle weird, but the best family ever. I didn't say much to Russell on Christmas but I do remember him sitting in the dining room, guarding the fudge. There was two left and he gave me one. I know that wasn't much of a recent memory, but that was, to me, something to make me smile. He was actually the last person I talked to at mama's before leaving. I know that Russell always gave me a hug when he seen me and always was picking at me. He was a great uncle and one of the funniest men I know. I love you Russell and will miss your very handsome face. You are in a better place and I know we'll see you again. I love you Russell.

“ Sorry circumstances did not allow us to be with all of you as you honored Russell son, brother, husband, daddy, uncle, friend and his life. The McMillion family overall is the cream of the crop when it comes to what really counts: LOVE. Norma represents this with tremendous grace and Russell never fell far from the tree! If having a mother like Norma was not enough, the Lord brought him a beautiful wife and children whose spirits are sweet and just as loving as Russell's. Always will we remember Russell greeting us with a big grin, laughing eyes and a sincere hug from the heart. As we wave good-bye on this side, others he loved whom made the journey ahead of him are waving hello and so glad to have him join them. Now Russell joins the cloud of witnesses and is cheering us on to see destiny fulfilled that we all be conformed into the image of Jesus Christ. Though his body be deceased, his spirit is more alive than ever and he is always with us; closer than a breath away. May all the McMillion family know how greatly we love and care for each of you.###imported-begin##Danny and Brenda Corey###imported-end##

“ Mom, April and Family,
My heart is broken, for the loss of my Big Brother. I cannot express how brokenhearted I am. Never to hear him fuss at me or give me words of advice. Russell was a great guy. I worked with him for quite a few years, he made me walk the straight and narrow. Russell was a good person to work for, but took no mess from me. I know what it is like to lose a son, we have lost so much. Starting with your mom, then Dad, then with our sister Phyllis, then Meghan, Little Ronnie, Charlie then last my Big Brother Russell. I just hope it comes to an end. I will miss Russell very much. After all he was my big brother. I know he is in a better place, but he left us too soon. He will always be in my heart. Rest in peace my brother. Russell loved his entire family. We all will see him again some day. Russell will be sadly missed by all. Love You Always,

Even though we worked together for close to 17 years, I was truly blessed to have worked closely with him these last few months of his short life. There was never a problem he could not help me with. Whether it was work or in my personal life. Thank you for all you have done. Until I see you again my brother, may you rest in peace.##imported-begin##GEORGE WILLIAMS##imported-end##

“ I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A shared friendship, a laugh, a kiss.
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved ones' touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now,
He set me free.
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints on snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken
in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I did not die.##imported-begin##Carol

I can remember calling him on his cell phone and he would know that I needed something, and he would always say "I'll be there in a minute". I could count on him showing up with himself and Ronnie Foreman. My dad being the man he was very compassionate, hardworking, funny, great provider, loyal, family man, loving, great father, and friend made my dad ONE OF A KIND. If I had to pick from a million dad's again I'll choose my dad. It has been a honor and a priviledge to be his son. I'm so glad he blessed me with his name. Im going to honor him by naming my first son after his grandfather. The impact he has left on me, his family, and this world we be felt for generations. “ April, I want to say thank you for being there for my brother, taking care of him and of course loving him. To you and my nieces and nephews, you all did a wonderful and beautiful service yesterday for Russell, He would of been so proud of you and the children. I know that I was. It took a lot of strength for you all to do what you did.

Mom, I know that losing a child is one of the hardest things that any parent would have to go through and this is why that I am always there for Kitty when she needs me as I did get a second chance with her. Sometimes it may have kept me from a family function, but sure that all did understand as my child does comes first. I just wish that I had spent more time with Russell as I felt that I did miss a lot.

To my sisters, I do enjoy our days at the mall although we do get into each others way sometimes, but we were spending quality time with each other. Donna you need to join us I love each of you very much.

To my brothers, I do not spend a lot of time with you guys other than family functions, but I do want you all to know that I do love each of you very much and my goal is to spend more time with each of you.

We do have so many great momories of Russell from child to adult and so glad that we do have these.

Russell, although I am the oldest of ten children, I still feel that you were my big brother. I just cannot beleive that I am writing this, it just feels like a dream and I am going to wake up and everything will be Okay.

There really is not a whole lot left for me to say about Russell since everyone has covered all of the great things that he has either said or did. I do love him and will truly miss him, but he is in a better place and will feel no more pain. May he rest in peace.

Russell please watch over us and remember that we ALL will miss you and we ALL do love you.

I will always remember you and your smile.

“ Aunt Norma & family,
I'm so sorry for your loss. I can remember telling you Norma what a strong woman I thought you were at the last family reunion considering all the losses you had suffered and how you've kept going and I know that God will give you the strength to get through this loss also. I'm so glad I got to see Russell at the last family reunion. I remember his smile. I'm sure his memory will live on through his wonderful family. My prayers are with all of you today. Remember death is not the end-it's only a temporary separation and one day we'll have another family reunion. Love,##imported-begin##Pam Carter Donnelly##imported-end##

“ Joany, I agree when you said "WOW". I still haven't been able to catch my breath. April, thank you for being a good wife to my brother. You guys always stuck together no matter what. You were there when he needed you the most! To his kids and grandkids, you should be proud,he really loved you guys. Russell, I never told you that I was proud that you were my brother. You have always been there for everyone during a crisis. You and Bob took care of mom after daddy died. That mean't a lot to her and us. Yall did a great job and Bob, your shoes just got a little bigger. Im sorry that i didn't know that you were in so much pain. You sure didn't show it. I didnt see you that often but, I had the peace of mind knowing you were in my life. I always looked up to you and was proud to say "thats my big brother". Life won't be the same without you for a lot of people. I love you so much!!! I always thought you were a great guy,but I figured I thought I was being a little partial. After hearing all the stories from Bob about how everyone that you knew respected you so much as a boss and friend,well it made me even more proud of youif possible. Beacuse you gave me away, didn't mean I was ready to give you away. I dont know how to let you go. I am so broken hearted. I love and miss you so much. Thank you for being in my life. To the rest of my brothers and sisters, I love you guys so much. Mom, I don't know what to say to ease your pain but, I love you!! Love your little sister, Donna###imported-begin##Donna###imported-end##

“ To My Entire Family,

Once again another link is broken

THE BROKEN CHAIN

*We little knew that morning
that God would call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone,
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.*

*Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*

*Love you always,
Your Sister

“ We would like to express our appreciation to the family for the beautiful service today. No one, not even a President of the United States, could have had a more touching service. The room was filled with love and happy memories. We have never witnessed a finer tribute. Family members, dear friends, co-workers all shared in expressing their feelings of a man who lived his life for the good of others.

It is rare to see a pastor searching for words, but as he said, there was nothing left to say. The funeral was perfect, topped off by a splendid "It Is Well With My Soul." I think it truly is well with Russell's soul, and he and April have done a fantastic job of seeing that it is well with the souls of their children as well. Perhaps one of the children will consider the ministry or mission field!

What a joy to celebrate Russell's life. We send our deepest sympathy to you in your time of grief, but rejoice with you in knowing that Russell is an heir to the Kingdom of Heaven.##imported-begin##John and Sharon McCormick##imported-end##

“ My heart aches for the loss of my big brother. We have all lost someone who was very special. We have lost a loving, kind and gentle son, husband, brother, father, grandfather, uncle and very dear friend to many. Russell was a tough man with a gentle heart. May we keep up the love and closeness in our family as Russell would want us to do. I love you all very much and I look up to God to give us strength to get through this time of pain. Rest in peace brother, you will live in my heart forever.

“ Our sincere condolences for the loss of Russell. He was a special friend and great co-worker. I'm blessed with the memories of knowing Russell. We sat together many nights in Baltimore talking about life, work and love of family. He offered wisdom about life only a loving and caring person could. Russell was a proud father and brother, it showed when he spoke of family. He will be missed by our company and his fellow workers. He was one of a kind and can never be replaced. Rest in peace my friend and thank you for the time and memories we shared.##imported-begin##Bill and Eleanor Slade##imported-end##

“ Ah Honey I miss you so so much . What in world am I going to do without my main squeeze. We were suppose to grow old together and push each others rockers on the porch. Honey I LOVE YOU and MISS YOU and I am doing my very best to do what you would have me to do but it is very hard. I feel like I have had surgery and they took out half my heart without pain killer and sometimes it is so hard to breath because the pain is so great. You are the very heart of me and have been for the 26 years we have been together. You have all ways been my rock and strenght, my love , my voice of reason when things get rough, my very bestest friend in the whole wide world, and The Love Of My Life. I Love and Miss You and will see you again when the Father calls me home baby. Love you###imported-begin##April###imported-end##

“ Wow! I can't believe that this is happening. My big brother is gone. Another chain in our family is broken. We did have many wonderful times and I think GOD that we have those memories. Russell was one of the most tender hearted men that I have ever known. The love that he had for his entire family was unmeasurable. All it took was a phone call and he was always there to help no matter how bad he felt. I will miss all the big fishing tales. I will look forward to the day that we can see him again. He will always live in my heart.

“ *To My Special Brother Russell,
We were blessed with a large and wonderful family. Coming from a family with four brothers and five sisters,we didn't get a lot, but there was lots of love,and a lot of loving memories. Words cannot express what my life will be like without you. You were my big brother. I looked up to you,even though I was older, you were my idol.You didn't have to leave us so soon. We will see you again in heaven.Life will not be the same without you.You will be sadly missed, but you will always be in my heart. I will remember the good times. Love you forever.*
