

Ruth Elizabeth Duvall

April 13, 2015

Ruth Elizabeth Jones Duvall, 94, went to be with the Lord on April 13, 2015. Ruth, as a young adult was a very accomplished pianist and organist. She was asked by many churches to play during their Sunday service. She graduated from Suffolk High School, and attended Longwood College for a short period of time before meeting and marrying our wonderful father. Occasionally she would play piano with her husbands' dance band. Later, she gave up music to raise five children who meant the world to her. She was a wonderful mother, who left us with great childhood memories. She had unwavering faith in the Lord, and was very forgiving of others. We loved her more than words can describe, and will miss her dearly.

Ruth was predeceased by her husband, William Clyde Duvall Jr.; two sons George Drummond Duvall and Charles Montgomery Duvall. She is survived by her daughter Elizabeth L. Melby and husband John of Portsmouth, VA; daughter-in-law Sheila Duvall of Virginia Beach, VA; two sons William Clyde Duvall III and wife Toko of Charlottesville, VA; and Thomas K. Duvall of Portsmouth, VA. She is also survived by six grandchildren. The family would like to extend special thanks to Dr. Thomas Harrington for all the care he showed our mother throughout the years. She admired him greatly.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, April 24, at 11:00 am at Loving Funeral Home, 3225 Academy Ave. Portsmouth, VA 23703. Followed by a burial service that will be held at Meadowbrook Memorial Gardens 4569 Shoulders Hill Rd. Suffolk, VA 23435.

“ A true souther lady. She loved everyone and was loved by everyone that knew her. Always asking me if I wanted something to eat or have a drink when visiting. Ask questions about my family and liked to hear the details. I only have found memories of her up until the end. They say a good women is hard to find, she was one. God Bless the family at this time.
