

Sam "Tripp" Stein Gay III

March 5, 2021

Sam "Tripp" Stein Gay III was born to Dorothy Gay Beazley and the late Sam Stein Gay Jr in Portsmouth, Virginia.

Sam was a graduate of Churchland High School. He was a former President of Portsmouth Jaycees. He proudly served in the Army as well as the Portsmouth Police Department.

He relocated from Portsmouth, Virginia to Casper, Wyoming as a manager of Haverty's Furniture. He was the Regional Coordinator for Project Appleseed in Wyoming, Nebraska, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

Sam is survived by family in Virginia; his mother, Dorothy "Dottie" Gay Beazley; brother, Stephen Gay and his wife Kellie; son, Sean Salmon and his wife, Meg; daughter, Mariah Benfield and her husband, Nicholas; as well as his family in Missouri; ex-wife Amanda Avants, sons Seth Gay and Simon Gay.

Sam was an active member of St. Peter's Anglican Church in Cheyenne, Wyoming where he served on the Vestry.

All services are pending at this time.

Please check back and confirm the visitation date and time.

Tribute Wall

DE

“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of Sam . I have several memories of him from the days at Churchland High and our days on the Portsmouth Police. To say we had a good time during our stint on midnights would be an understatement. I'm sorry I lost touch with him after he moved away. It's tough when a classmate/co worker passes away. Rest In Peace my friend and I offer prayers for his family during this difficult tune.

David English - May 13, 2021 at 05:38 PM