

Sarah Leigh Rhodes

April 5, 2014

The loving daughter of Betty Johnson Rhodes and the late Jessie L.Rhodes,Sr. was called home to be with the Lord on Saturday April 5, 2014 after a severe battle with Rheumatoid Arthritis. After receiving a bachelor degree in early education she taught 2nd grade in Georgia. Once moving back to Virginia, she became the educational teacher for Maryview Hospital in Portsmouth.

Sarah's main goal in life was to share the word of the Lord with everyone that she came in contact with. She is survived by her mother Betty, brother Jessie L Rhodes, Jr., sister in-law Ginger, nephews Justin and Patrick, niece Kelsey and the apple of her eye, her great niece Adalynn along with many loving aunts, uncles and cousins.

There is a visitation at 1:00 pm Tuesday April 8th with a funeral service at 2:00pm in Loving Funeral Home with Reverend Jackie Allen officiating followed by the committal service at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers Sarah has requested that donations be made to Jackson Memorial Baptist Church, 4316 Bruce Road, Chesapeake, Virginia 23321.

“ Im sorry to learn of your loss. However, twke comfort in the fact that according to Jehovah God, the "God of all comfort"(2 Corinthians 1:3,4), there will come a time when "no resident (for any reason) will say "I am sick." (Isaiah 33:24)

“ Jesus compared death to sleep because people can be awakened from death, thanks to the power of God. The resurrections that Jesus himself performed on earth give us confidence in the Bible’s promise that the dead in God’s memory will awake from their long “sleep.” (John 5:28, 29) In fact, the Bible assures us that the time will soon come when “death will be no more,” so no one will grow old and then die.—Revelation 21:4. May this bring your family comfort during this difficult time.

“ Sarah fought the battle of a terrible disease all the while keeping her faith in The Lord. She will be missed by all. I take comfort in knowing she is with her savior. She has a new body and is pain free. She is most likely giving Uncle Jessie a back scratch and hugging Grandma and Grandpa.
