“ Sherri, Matt, Barnes and Hartsell families, we are so sorry to hear of your heartbreak...there are no words we can offer to console your grief...just know that we are lifting you all up to our Heavenly Father in prayer and asking that He give you the strength you need, the comfort you desire, and the peace that passes all understanding, as you face the times to come. Know that you are loved by many and if there is anything you need or want, you only have to say the word, and we would do it...love and hugs from the whole Eames clan
